Making the Most of our corner of the world

This was Troy State University's first year to grant the Algeron Sydney Sullivan Award. It was awarded to one man and one woman of the graduating class and to one non-student.

The criteria suggested by the Algeron Sydney Sullivan Foundation states that the award is to be given "only in recognition of fine spiritual qualities, practically applied to daily living, as distinct from high scholarship, athletic achievement, success in business, professional ability, political leadership, or more worldly prominence in any calling. On the other hand, it is realized that the highest spiritual and humanitarian qualities may well be found in intimate and inseparable association with a successful pursuit of such followings."

The recipients of this award were selected by a committee consisting of one administrator, three faculty members appointed by the President of Troy State University, and two student members selected by the Student Government Association Senate.

Eddie Garner, Rudee Kritakara, and President Ralph Adams received this high honor for the academic year 1981-82. They were honored during the 1982 Honors Day Program and during a luncheon held that day in the Board Room. Each recipient was given a framed certificate, citation, and an engraved bronze medallion.

Nobody Said It Would be Easy

"more than just book-learnin'"

It is true that TSU provides endless opportunities to better one's self but it is a long road from the classification of freshman to that of senior.

Beginning with registration students are confronted with many conflicts. For one thing the financial burden must be carried. Even though Troy State is reasonable when compared with other institutions, the tuition for one quarter is $280.00 and on campus fees ranged from $433.20-$522.40 in 1981-82.

Besides money, other helpful assets for making it through four years include discipline, determination and probably more important than anything else, good study habits.

But learning how to budget time and money is all part of the "package deal". A college education is so much more than just "book learnin'." Learning about life in our corner of the world prepares us for meeting the challenges of tomorrow with confidence and poise.

Title III

new development at TSU

During the 1981-82 school year, Troy State complied with the Title III law of the Higher Education Act of 1965 by starting the Troy State University Development Project. Title III at Troy State is under the auspices of Dr. Angela Rolling. A certain amount of money has been allocated to TSU to sponsor four activities: the career development center, the math and natural science tutorial lab, the writing center, and the summer Project Success.

Activity one: the Career Development Center was started on October 1981 to serve as a resource center for students and faculty. The career center, located in Adams 125, has in its possessions an expanding vertical file with various information about different occupations. The career development center also contains the SOICC computer which contains information on available jobs in the nation and information concerning financial aid at colleges. The center offers self-improvement workshops to get computer preregistration.

The Math and Nautral Sciences tutorial lab was the second activity started on March 16, 1982. The lab was designed to assist students in the biological sciences, math, chemistry, and physics. There are two full-time instructors and five assistant tutors working in the lab. The lab has audio/visual activities and five microcomputers to help students. A dial-a-tutor program allows students to call in for tutorial help twenty-four hours a day. The lab is located at 209-B McCall Hall.

On March 29, 1982, Activity III under the Title got underway. The Writing Center's main purpose is to improve the basic writing skills of students here at TSU. There are six tours involved in the program and two full-time instructors. The writing center sponsored workshops for students who wanted help in taking the English departmental. The Writing Center is located in the old ECE Learning Center building.

Title III also sponsored a special summer program called Project Success which utilizes staff members from the other three activities.

Title III will be funded through September, 1983. It is anticipated that the success of the program will cause its continuance.

In January, 1982, four new student houses were completed and occupied by Troy State students. These are leased and occupied by the Sigma Pi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Theta Chi and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternities. Two houses previously completed on Pell Avenue are leased and occupied by the Sigma Chi and Lambda Chi Fraternities.

The housing was designed to house individuals or groups and were constructed following several years of research and planning to determine the best housing for meeting the needs of Troy State students now, and in the future.

The 1981-82 school year has brought many successful improvements for the Pace Baseball Field at TSU. Twelve-thousand raised bleachers were put in along with new men and women's restrooms, and a new concession stand. Also, the field surface was upgraded. During Spring quarter, a new baseball equipment room and press box were built.

The projected completion of a new lighting system during the 1982-83 year will complete the field's renovation.

Not including the lighting system, the cost of the baseball field's improvement was $70,000.

These improvements of Pace Field has brought in larger crowds. Crowds and revenue were the largest in history for 1982.

The new facilities and leadership qualities of Coach Riddle contributed to larger crowds. Since the baseball facilities available are so important for successful recruiting and an all around good season, the years ahead should get better and better for TSU baseball.

Troy State

Expanding to Meet the Needs of Tomorrow

The Sorrell Chapel, located in a natural wood setting overlooking the lagoon, should be available for use by the end of August. The Chapel's architecture is modeled after a mini-cathedral; pews are constructed of wood, with kneeling benches, and the walls are covered with oak paneling. Behind the sanctuary is a choir loft capable of holding twenty members, while there is room for one hundred people in the congregation. Stained glass windows finish out the cathedral look.

Although there are no present plans for the Chapel's use, Mr. Walter Hennigan said the University expects several of the religious meetings now held in other locations to begin using the Chapel. It will also be available for initiations and other occasions including weddings which are appropriate for the setting of a chapel. Administration of the Chapel is tentatively set to operate through Mr. Ron Pierce, Adams Center Director, who schedules other activities on campus.

Campus Life
the Things We Do

Expressions Reveal a Sense of Belonging

Being in the Heart of Dixie makes Troy State University traditionally friendly and hospitable. Warm smiles and southern drawls are always with us. There is no doubt this slightly laid-back atmosphere is one of the attractions to the incoming freshman.

At TSU one feels a sense of belonging almost immediately. There is so much to experience and learn.

We see here some of the expressions which reflect the way things really are. There are the crazy days, the happy times, the monotonous routines, and the moments of philosophical enlightenment. This and a lot more is what makes up campus life.

Getting the "Green" Out

What, besides summer school could lure twelve college students into spending summer break on the TSU campus? Why would any student live in a dorm and eat in Saga an extra eight weeks; for precollege orientation, of course.

Each of the twelve student PCO leaders felt the importance of sharing their knowledge of what to expect and how to prepare for college life.

A pea-green freshman wandering around campus, dumbfounded, overwhelmed and teary eyed could break any onlookers heart. Thus, the orientation leaders train for a week through specially designed seminar sessions which enable them to effectively and happily schedule, orient, and get the "green" out of incoming students.

While there is serious work to be done, there is also lots of fun to be had! This year's crew of orientation leaders did some of their own training in the area of "New TSU Tradition." The traditions included the main quad being an ancient Indian burial ground, for which people had to remove their shoes to walk upon; the bushes behind Bibb Graves spelling out Troy State University in the Spring and the ampitheatre being the place to pop the big question.

Two days of informative lectures from counselors and department chairmans, introduction games, a PCO skit, campus tours, a picnic, a Mr. and Miss. PCO pageant, new friends, movies and a night on the town leave PCO students with the feeling that they got a taste of it all!

Adjustments

Going Away to College Means Growing Up

The first days of being a freshman are eye-openers and the drowsiness of "fitting in" does not arrive until the new student makes several adjustments.

When Mother is not around it is amazing how dirty dishes pile up, clothes are destroyed on the wrong temperature, and common colds turn into "strep throat."

Sooner or later books are actually studied, checking accounts are overdrawn and calls from home are relished.

Troy State University like any other institution of higher education is designed to above all else educate but with the education comes a great deal of growing up on the part of the student. Going away to college means adjusting to a new school in a new town. There are no people hovering over you telling you to be successful. You make it on your own. You decide what you want to be and you (as the slang of 1982 puts it) GO FOR IT!!!

Registration

Just One of those things

It's true, besides being known for it's beautiful campus, friendly atmosphere, adequate facilities, and efficient faculty, Troy State University has come to accept one unpleasantry as a "have to". Students are frequently heard complaining about how awful it is to stand in the registration lines, but on the other hand, it is no bed of roses for the faculty and student workers either. Whether behind the tables or in the endless lines, everyone soon finds their patience being tried. After a while even the social beacons will clam up and just want to get through.

For the poor registering student who suddenly realizes he has been standing in the wrong pay line for an hour and for the frazzled student worker who has just contended with a rude individual who insists he doesn't want a meal ticket when the worker knows he lives in a dorm, the phrase "Alabama's Most Exciting Campus" takes on a whole new meaning.

After the dust has settled and order returns for another quarter the student body seems to chalk up the inconvenience of registration as one minor flaw in a place of endless attributes. Perhaps this trial called "registration" gives some students the sense of having worked even harder for something that does not come easily for some in the first place — a chance for a college education.

Dorm Life

Putting Up

With Each Other

One of the new and interesting experiences a freshman or transfer student may choose is living in a dorm. For those from a small family, community telephones, sharing a bathroom with twenty other people and living in a 12'x15' cubicle with a total stranger may take a little getting used to. Stereos and uninsulated walls may have the serious student fleeing to the library for some peace and quiet, but the practical joker finds himself in heaven.

The veterans of the dorm pride themselves in carrying on such time-honored traditions as "penny-locking" doors, putting vaseline on the telephone receiver, door knobs, etc., and stealing someone's robe while they are in the shower. A sense of humor is a must when one lives in the dorm.

Dorm life does provide endless opportunities to get to know your fellow students. There is not a lot of privacy but there are always people around when the need for conversation arises. And many innocent popcorn poppers have started up lasting friendships as half the hall gets wind of their product.

Living in a dormatory is one of those experiences we will probably look back upon with laughter as part of a time when we had it made, but while we are still experiencing the reality of it we retain the right to gripe a little.

With Saga comes cafeteria food and the opportunity to socialize. Surely Tim Lanley comes for both.

Saga provides a one of a kind dining experience. The clientell is like now here else in the world the food is in a class of its own and the service is not to be compared with.

In such a lavish "restaurant" as the one which seems to be referred to above, one would be expected to be served no less than a gourmet meal. "Oh I see! Those dishes the other night were Cheese a la Macaroni, Brocoli Soufle, and Veal Parmesian. I agree completely as far as the menu is concerned positively no other "restaurant" can quite compare. Saga is for most of us simply unavoidable.

When the Stars Fall on Troy, Alabama

When the sun set and the stars began to fall, each Troy State student brought in the night in his own special way. There were just as many activities in town as there were students to do them. Some students spent the evening studying in the library, while others enjoyed watching their favorite television show in the dorm or the weekly movie at the Adam's Center. On any given night students could be seen swimming in the Natatorium, cruising the streets, or dining with friends at a local restaurant, whether it be Wendy's or Western Sizzlin'. Some nights were devoted to partying to the latest beat at the local hot spot in town. No matter what students were doing they all seemed to agree that night time was the right time for fun in Troy, Alabama.

Weekends

TGIF

For most TSU students, college is a five day a week endeavor. When taking a normal load a student has little time during the week to do anything other than attend classes, study, attend club meetings, study, etc . . . Needless to say when Friday approached each week, the general attitude was "Thank Goodness It's Friday."

Things students did on the weekends including washing clothes, cleaning rooms or perhaps sleeping. Some students would head home to see Mom and Dad and eat a little home cooking, while still others headed for the beach for a weekend of sun. Those who decided to stick around Troy could always find something to do. For sports fans there were Saturday afternoon baseball games, Track meets and Intramural practice or maybe just a game of tennis.

Of course for those who felt compelled to study, the weekend was a good time to do that as well. However one decided to spend it, the weekend was a much welcomed break from the routine of classes.

There's a lot to be said for an achiever

What I gotta remember not to forget. How many times do we make lists like that? We all have our own schedules to follow but it is amazing when you think of how many different ways TSU students can spend their time.

There are those who discipline themselves to do the same things everyday not only for prestige or recognition but for self development as well. Some people place high priorities on developing themselves where as others work hard as leaders of an organization with a cause they believe in.

One thing's for sure, nobody pushes these students but themselves. There is a lot to be said for an achiever!

And where could be a better place for an achiever than good ole TSU. Since Troy State is a smaller university it has the benefits of one. TSU provides a good setting for students to develop and use their talents while in school. The struggle in big schools is contending with the constant battle of being more than just a number. The struggle at TSU, many times, is limiting your involvement in order to squeeze in studying.

Nevertheless, while we are carrying on with our frantic schedules oftentimes we find ourselves doing things we didn't know we could do. We learn what we're really made of when the going gets tough. We learn who we really are.

UPSTAIRS DOWNSTAIRS

The Ralph Wyatt Adams Center is the TSU student center. Most students make at least one trip a day, whether it be to check their mail, buy a card from the bookstore, or study upstairs.

In additions to a Post Office, Student Lounge, and Bookstore, the Adams Center houses some administrative offices upstairs. The Ballroom located on the second floor is reserved year-round for everything from Junior-Senior Proms to the Honors Day Program. There are also meeting rooms for organizations upstairs.

Downstairs the Dining Room is available for all students but has an influx of commutors and faculty for lunch. The Information Booth and Recreation room on first floor are used by new and old students alike.

No matter what time of year the Adams Center is always buzzing with activity of some kind.

fever

There was a new sensation on campus in 1981-82. People from all over campus found themselves suddenly addicted to this new fad. The craze was video games and the addiction was Pac Man!™

Millions of people from teeny-boppers to senior citizens were engulfed by the video trend. College students made up a large portion of this group.

It may seem a little odd that the TSU game room in the Adams Center took in more money during the deadweeks than during any other weeks during the quarters. But it makes sense when one considers the release the games provide. When playing video games it is enjoyable to take out the day's frustrations through killing an invader space ship, shooting a centipede or destroying an asteroid.

At the peak of the "Pac Man™ Mania" the hit song "Pac Man™ Fever" made its way up the top forty. So it was a unique situation in that someone afflicted with the fever could listen to the hit song that explained his illness while he actually played the game.

Equal rights found its way into the arcade with the creation of "Ms. Pac Man™", which was just as successful. It was clear that it was time for Pin Ball players to step aside because there was a new woman and man on the block.

Rainy Days and Mondays

Nobody can be "up" 365 days of the year. Yes, in an attempt to record what made 1981-82 a year to remember it is important to be honest. Nothing is ever a constant bed of roses. So here's to all those days when nothing went right, like the times when you just got through bombing out on a test and as you try to fight your way through a monsoon of rain and wind, your umbrella flips out. Or how about the times you came back from the shower and your roommate had gone to class and left you locked out. And there are always those wonderful moments when you get to the dining hall only to find out that you have lost your meal ticket and you have to visit the manager for a temporary meal pass.

One can look back on such moments with a chuckle now because we realize if it weren't for the bad days we wouldn't appreciate the good ones.

Doing Things Together.

True friendship is evident when you can share all your ideas, dreams, and fears with someone else. A college friend is usually someone you met because you found that you had something in common, whether that common interest be a class, an organization, or a sport.

Often times a friend becomes the brother or sister you never had or they help take the place of the one back home. True friends are always around. They are there to hem a skirt, keep you company when lifting weights, dry a tear, and help when you are sick, but most of all to join in the fun.

Marthanna Moore decided fall quarter that she wanted to meet Jim and John Reed, the inseparable twins. Through a mutual acquaintance Marthanna found out their names. She used their names to catch them off guard through a friendly joke. This led to their friendship. Teresa Williams entered the picture during winter quarter at a movie. From that time on, they were always seen together at meal time. Going to ballgames and taking afternoon walks have also brought the group closer together.

John Hurst and Scott Denman met each other during fall quarter through a mutual interest in baseball. Mark MacGregor met Scott and John in a business class winter quarter. Although they get along fine, Scott gets tired of always looking up at the taller John and Mark. Some people have said that when walking down the sidewalk they look like a goalpost — Mark and John as the uprights and Scott as the crossbar.

Call it fate, predestiny, or just plain old friendship, but whatever you call it, Becky Surrency and Debra Bennett have it! Their friendship began the first scarey and unforgettable day of classes fall quarter. Both were freshman from out of state, one from Florida (Go, GATORS!) and one from Georgia (Go, DAWGS!). Despite their differing interests and future goals Debra and Becky have become great friends.

Throughout their stay at Troy and even as life carries them in different directions, the two hope to remain friends forever.

Lisa Compton and Mark Johnson became friends early in 1980. When they both attended a missions project during winter break, they got to know each other better Since then, they have shared a special friendship.

Denise Delk, Heather Davis, Barbara Duncan, and Faith Reed are a group of girls that curiosity brought together Their activities both on and off campus have created a strong bond of friendship.

Working on Campus

a give and take situation

It has often been said that Troy State University keeps Troy, Alabama alive and prosperous. One could go a little further and say that Troy State would not exist without the several thousand students who pour in each fall from all over the world.

Not only does TSU need these young adults to maintain enrollment but also because without these people the University as a community could not maintain efficiency since many students work on campus while in school.

It is a unique give and take situation. These students get an education and TSU gets needed manpower to keep the campus running at its maximum potential. Many on campus jobs are available. There are lifeguards, assistant directors in the dormitories, office workers, tutors, proctors, library workers, printing assistants, photography workers, and publication jobs just to name a few!

Actually having students take an active role in keeping the system working works out quite nicely for everyone involved.

Cancelled Classes

"Weather" Students Liked It or Not!

In mid January a sleet and snow weather warning went out to Pike County and surrounding counties. Classes were abruptly dismissed at 11:00 o'clock so that commuters could get home before the storm hit later that afternoon the flurries began.

For the rest of that week Troy's campus was a winter wonderland. Some students, who were from the north laughed at all the excitement rolled over and went back to sleep. But most of the campus was actively involved in snow man construction, snow ball fights, and hill-sliding.

During the rest of that week and through the weekend the most difficult task for the on campus student was getting to the cafeteria safely via icey sidewalks.

When Monday morning rolled around we had all had a winter vacation and the frozen little town of Troy was thawed out enough to re-establish order.

The Preppy Look

Casual Classics carried over to be a Lasting Hit in '82

Little major change managed to squeeze into the collegiate styles from last year. Words like "pullovers", "top siders" and "button downs" were as common as "Western Civ," "English Lit.", and "Fortran". When a style is as easy to wear as the classical look it tends to linger.

But for those who refused to surrender to the pink and green prep or even to the more subdued basic tailored look there were more sub-styles on campus. Silky, romantic blouses helped to tone down pleated skirts, and pumps gave an air of femininity. For some guys western "duds" featuring designer jeans were the way to go.

The Autumn look was full of the colors of an evening sunset. Lavender, rust, and pale pink were predominant. Wool and polyester blend skirts and jumpers were a comfortable ideal for the college woman. And whether female collegiate students conformed to the hit of flat heels with skirts or whether they actually set the trend is questionable, but the end results were practical.

Winter brought more corduroy blazers and slacks with a western flair and tweed jackets featuring blends of brown and rose.

With the first signs of spring came walking shorts for women in varied lengths from mid-calf to four inches above the knee. Safari and nautical flairs competed for the major influence in warm weather clothes with cotton canvas espadrilles as the main new feet feature for guys and girls.

As always it was more the fine details and how one put things together that made one look "together" than it was how many designer names one owned. Delicate gold chains and beads were still hot items on the market. And especially with men's clothes, things like how shoes are shined and tied made a big difference when separating the fashion conscious from the ordinary. The idea was obvious; on the college campus just being different was the major motivation for style. When something became too common it was simply discarded by the trend-setters for something more daring. One example was the Izod. About mid-year Polo's took over as the preference for the student after true "status."

On the college campus there were several ways to dress since students were involved in so many different activities on any given day. Naturally their clothes had to be functional for their day's experiences. This "anything goes" attitude which is common on most campuses was just one more aspect of the unique experience we call campus life.

Busy Times

When Things Just Seem to Keep Piling Up!

Throughout the 1981-82 academic year there were times when students found themselves extremely busy. At one time or another the relatively gracious individual undoubtable experienced what was sometimes referred to as an "overload."

This is a term used rather loosely to mean one has taken too many hours and/or has gotten too involved in campus activities.

There was always something going on other than classes; whether it be a pageant, a SGA election, a play, or Greek Week. These activities and others kept students occupied in between test, class projects, and term papers. If TSU were to offer a class on learning how to juggle one's time it would not be too presumptuous to assume that most TSU students would pull at least a C.

the Decorating Dilemna

Making It Home

Students living in Residence Halls adjust to the dilemna of living in one room in many different ways. Likewise, male students who choose "frat. house" living are faced with the problem of giving their rooms character which they find condusive to their lifestyles.

Some people think the way to solve their decorating problems is to plaster posters on every square inch of the walls. Others are more selective in what they hang up.

Most rooms have their moments of glory once a week when they have been cleaned and the other six days of the week the rooms become progressively suffocating with wall to wall clothes. But perhaps that is what makes them bearable. That is what makes these dwellings more like the students' rooms back home.

Leaving for a break

It seemed like just when students had settled in, suddenly deadweek was fast approaching. Finals come and go like Hurricane Fredrick and sometime between studying for exams students slowly pack for home. Where all the extra "stuff" comes from no one ever knows. But there is always twice as much going back as there was coming up.

Saying goodbye to one's roomie may be a painful farewell or a joyous riddence. Likewise, going home may be a time of recuperation or work.

College is a blast, sure, but no one will argue that there is not a lot of mental and emotional strain that goes along with a degree. Therefore, a break is a time of relaxation even if it is spent working at a hard physically demanding job, because it is still getting away. It is simply a vacation that the occupation of "student" definitely requires.

Sorority Rush

The Alpha Delta Pi Sorority had an active year. They had several leaders in ROTC, SGA, Mortar Board, Wesley Foundation, TSU Synchronized Swim Team, Catholic Campus Ministry Association, the Trop and several others.

As usual ADPi was kept busy raising money for the benefit of others. An Alpha Disney Pi vacation in Walt Disney World was given away and the money received from the sale of the tickets was donated to the Ronald McDonald Houses and the American Cancer Society. However, the year was not all work; they had a parent's day in which the mothers of the girls participated in a special induction ceremony.

The year's officers were: Mary Ann Branch, President; Maria Mendoza, Executive Vice-President; Shari Lewis, Pledge Educator; Jackie Newton, Secretary; Laura Spier, Treasurer; Lorraine Bloeth, Panhellenic; Cathy Bruce, Scholarship; Mary Fiveash, Guard; Andrea Davenport, House Chairman; Jennifer Muer, Activities.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

This year Alpha Gamma Delta pledged their full quoto of 26 girls. One of their accomplishments was receiving first place in the Lambda Chi Alpha Sorority President's Kidnap. They also received first place in the bed decorating contest held annually during the Angel Flight Bed Race. Five Alpha Gamma Deltas were chosen as fraternity pledge class sweethearts. And there were twenty five Alpha Gam fraternity little sisters by spring quarter.

These ladies were deemed best participators in the fall blood drive and won Alpha Phi Alpha food drive. During the winter quarter the Alpha Gams were busy raising $1000 for Juvenile Diabetes in the annual Skate-a-Thon. Three Alpha Gams made top ten in the Miss TSU pageant. The Alpha Gamma Deltas walked away with the second place award in TSU Panhellenic Scholarship Fall and winter quarters.

Officers included Marcia Rouse — President, Jackie Young — Vice President of Fraternity Education, Lynn Hudson — Vice President of Scholarship, Candie Cannaday — Recording Secretary, Linda Parrish — Corresponding Secretary, Wanda Cooper — Treasurer, Tammy Caldwell — Rush Chairman.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority originated in 1907 1908 at Howard University. Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded at Troy State University in 1978. The AKS's put much emphasis on community service and self fulfillment 1981-82 proved to be a successful year for Troy State University's Chi Omega's.

They achieved many goals set by the chapter. Being a well-rounded individual is a most for all members of Chi Omega. The individual girls were involved in many campus activities and organizations.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded at Howard University in 1913. The founders envisioned an organization of college women pledged to serious endeavor and community service. The Sorority demonstrates a vital concern for social welfare, academic excellence and cultural enrichment, de emphasizing the social side of sorority life.

KAPPA DELTA

Kappa Delta's open motto "Let Us Strive for That Which is Honorable, Beautiful, and Highest" was first shared by four college girls who founded Kappa Delta sorority in 1897. The Delta Delta chapter of Kappa Delta was founded at Troy State in 1966.

During the 1981-82 academic year the Kappa Deltas shared in the excitement as two of their sisters placed as runner-ups in preliminary pageants for Miss Florida and Miss Tennessee. Three sisters were chosen cheerleaders, one sister the Lady Trojan Track captain, and another TSU Panhellenic president. This year's Sigma Chi Derby Darling and second runner-up were Kappa Delta's.

At their national convention the Kappa Deltas received an achievement award and the coveted scholarship award. These women have won the TSU Panhellenic scholarship trophy for five consecutive quarters.

They played "Banana Bingo" at the Pike Manor Nursing Home weekly and contributed to the Crippled Childrens Home in Richmond, Va.

A Kappa Delta girl is an individual with her own hopes, dreams and goals. Each sister shares her friendship and love in a unique way. Kappa Delta has both individualism and unity.

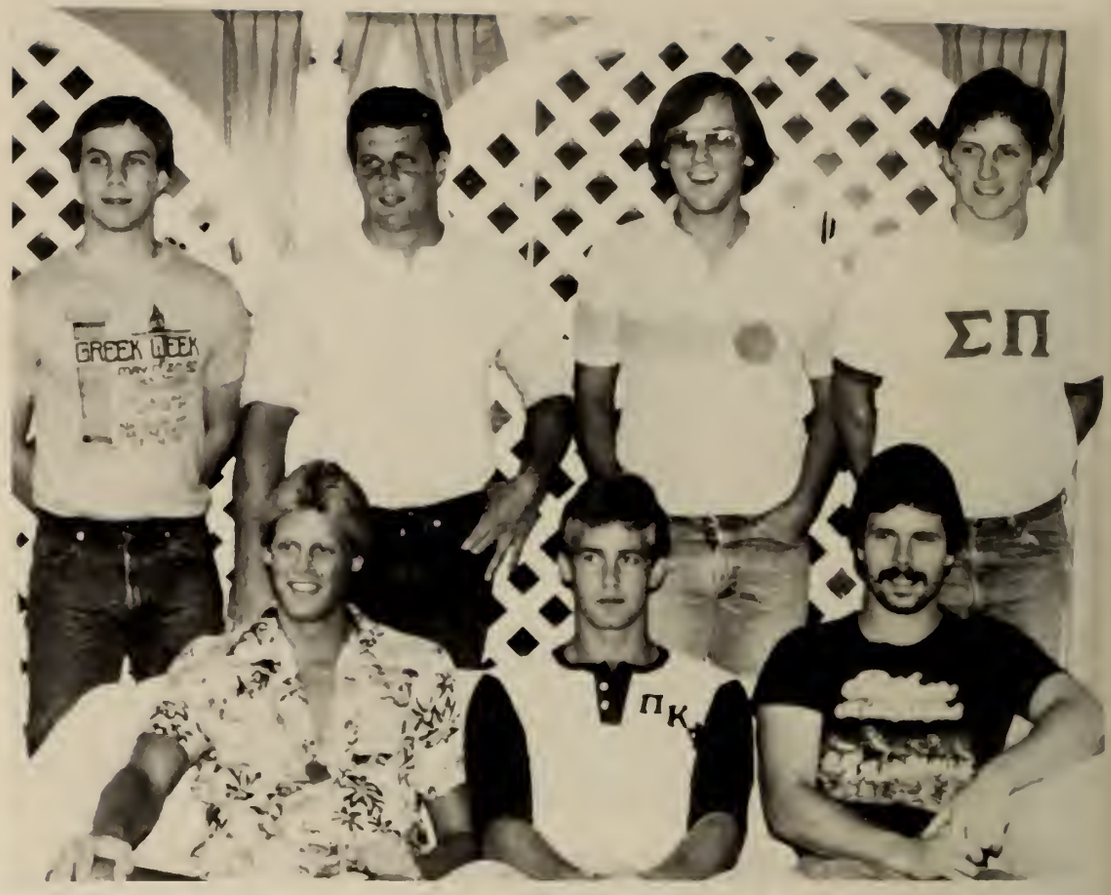

Officers included Virginia West — President, Tammy Watford — Vice President, Anne Kimmel — Treasurer, Stella Kelly — Asst. Treasurer, Suzie Ammons — Secretary, Renee Evans — Editor, Panhellenic — Cindy Willis, Membership — Carol LoCicero.

PHI MU

Phi Mu Fraternity, one of the nation's oldest and largest organizations for women was founded on March 4, 1852. Phi Mu is recognized among the Fraternity world by her colors of Rose and White and her flower the rose carnation. Kappa Gamma Chapter, chartered on January 6, 1966, was the first sorority on Troy State's campus.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA

Bowling

The Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity had a busy Fall Quarter. They participated in "Greek Blast" along with nine other fraternities and sororities. They conducted another successful food drive in the form of an all Greek competition and the Alpha Gamma Delt's won for second year.

Their new project for the year was the Mr. and Miss TSU Olympian Contest. Troy State's most beautiful bodies, both male and female, were on view. This event was so successful it was decided that it would become an annual event.

Among Alpha Phi Alpha's the TSU brotherhood ranked number one academically in the state, once again. The Alpha Phi Alpha's also won the Intramural (Greek) Basketball Trophy.

KAPPA ALPHA PSI

The Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity Incorporated, a dream of Elder Watson Diggs, became a reality January 5, 1911 at Indiana University. The Theta Phi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi was chartered in 1976 at Troy State University.

Kappa Alpha Psi is a social fraternity, but it also lends itself to community services. During the past year the brothers of Theta Phi have visited the Senior Citizens Home, and the Children's Home. They sponsored a community services program to aid the elderly residents of Troy, and sang at several churches. The Kappa Alpha Psi's also sponsored a Ms. Jr Diamonette pageant for young ladies of Troy.

The brothers had several volunteers for the Special Olympics and on several occasions assisted Track Coach and brother Charles Oliver with track meets. Their biggest event of the year was the second annual Spring Blast which according to the fraternity was a blast indeed.

LAMBDA CHI

Once again, Sigma Tau chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha had an outstanding year. The fraternity's Shipwreck and First Annual Fallout parties proved to be popular all-campus events. The Baptist Children's Home and the Pike County Pensions and Securities Board were benefactors of Lambda Chi's fundraising projects.

Sigma Tau and the Lambda Chi Alpha national fraternity continue to be pace setters in the inter-fraternal world. A policy prohibiting hazing was passed by the General Assembly several years ago, and TSU's Lambda Chis wholeheartedly support it. The fraternity's Associate Member program, which eliminates the term "pledge" and the hazing associated with it, has been accepted in spirit by other national fraternities.

Pi Kappa Phi, the first fraternity established at TSU, had a very successful year in many aspects. The Pi Kaps received the fraternity All Sports Trophy for the second time in three years.

The Pi Kappa Phi fraternity had a very active year of recruiting. Pi Kappa Phi was the largest fraternity on campus during the 1981-82 academic year.

The Spring Bunny Contest proved to be a hit once again. This allowed the Gamma Gamma Chapter to contribute one of the highest totals in the country to the fraternities national charity organization P.U.S.H. (Play Units for the Severly Handicapped.)

Officers included Mike Hoist — Archel; Scotty Traylor — Vice Archel; Steve Shaffer — Treasurer; Barry Goodwin — Secretary; Willie Howard — Chaplain; Craig Hawkins — Pledge Warden; David Brunson — Historian.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Guer

The Alabama chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded on the Troy State campus in March of 1978. Since that time, the fraternity has grown to one of the largest organizations at TSU.

During the Fall the fraternity participated in the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon, raising $1,500.00. The SAE social life included a pledge swap with the Alpha Gam's, and a social with Alpha Delta Pi. Diane Arnzen, an SAE little sister placed 1st runner-up for Homecoming Queen.

In other areas of campus life, the fraternity was represented by Ken Anderson as Phi Mu's pledge class sweetheart, with other brothers being chosen for Alpha Gamma Delta and Alpha Delta Pi Big Brothers.

Winter quarter brought one of SAE's largest band parties to raise funds for the Muscular Distrophy Association

The Sigma Chi fraternity was founded at Troy State University in 1977. Since its conception the brothers of Eta Phi Chapter have been involved in many campus activities.

The Sigma Chi's made many outstanding achievements this past year. One of these was winning the most donations in the Alpha Gamma Delta Skate-a-Thon. They also won the Alpha Delta Pi "Penny Drop". Other activities included winning the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Sexy Legs Contest, Raising funds for Wallace Village through the Philanthropic project, and participating in the annual blood drive.

Officers included Robin Boutwell — Consul, Forrest Lee — Pro Consul, Dee Anthony — Magister, Sam Huffstetler — Queastor, Terry Kersey — Annotator.

SIGMA CHI

Dedication, Sincerity, and personal integrity put the Sigma Pi Fraternity in the limelight during the 1981-82 year. The brothers of Delta Psi Chapter set their goals high and took much pride in accomplishing those goals.

During fall quarter the Sigma Pi's received three first place trophies for lawn displays and also won third place in fraternity football with a 6-3 record.

The Sigma Pi fraternity moved into their new home during winter quarter. They also observed their tenth anniversary of Delta Psi Chapter.

Spring quarter proved to be busy and exciting for the brothers. The annual Sigma Pi powderpuff football jamboree was held spring with the Phi Mu's emerging to be the winners. All proceeds from powderpuff were given to charity. The brothers also did well in softball with a record of 6-3 losing twice in extra innings.

The brothers of Delta Psi Chapter represent a great brotherhood and they encourage everyone to "Keep your Eye on Sigma Pi!"

Tau Kappa Epsilon international fraternity was founded at Illinois Weslia University in 1899. Tau Kappa Epsilon first came to Troy State University in 1966 as a colony and received its charter in May of 1967. Since that time the Tekes have been active brothers and have held many offices at Troy

Theta Chi Dream Girl Tracy Noble.

The Theta Chi Fraternity was formed on the principles of brotherhood and togetherness. Although they lost their chapter house in a tragic fire, they were able to maintain the philosophies of their founders. They regrouped and moved into a new house on Pell Avenue.

Two Theta Chi brothers were actively involved in the IFC. One of these, Mike Hewell, was deemed President of IFC and Greek of the Year. The fraternity was actively involved in the Reclamation Contest and very strong in 1981-82 intramural play. This year's Dream Girl formal was a delightful success.

Organizations getting involved

David Campbell
SGA President

David Campbell, a senior management major, served as the SGA President during the 1981-82 academic school year. Originally from Troy, Alabama, David's interests included carpentry, karate, and canoeing.

Mr. Campbell had been involved in SGA previously as a senator and was selected as TSU's Outstanding Senator of the Year in 1980. David viewed SGA as more of a service organization and forum for student opinion than a political workshop. "I have found the TSU administration eager to hear student problems and gripes."

On reflecting upon his year, David commented, "My participation in SGA was simply a means whereby I could use my individual potential to serve others."

David held the position of Delta Chi fraternity Recording Secretary from 1978 to 1980. David was also a member of young Democrats.

Anne Kimmel Secretary

Anne Kimmel, a native of De-Funiak Springs, Florida, served as the 1981-82 SGA Secretary. A sophomore, Anne was persuing a degree in Business Administration and Finance.

As SGA secretary, Anne handled all correspondence, recorded the minutes from senate meetings, and kept records of all laws and resolutions going through the Senate to ensure their use in future senates.

Anne, having enjoyed her term as a freshman senator, wanted to become more involved within SGA. Thus, the office of secretary seemed to be a perfect opportunity to persue this goal.

Ms. Kimmel enjoyed outdoor activities, cooking, softball and tennis, and being with her family and friends. Anne was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Gamma Beta Phi honor societies, and served as Treasurer for Kappa Delta social sorority.

Stacy Krebs Vice President

For Stacy Krebs, participation in Student Government was simply the continuation of student leadership from high school. The SGA Vice President was a junior European History major from Hales Corners, Wisconsin. Miss Krebs considered SGA an extracurricular activity, a job, a learning experience, and the most rewarding time of her life. "At the college level, SGA offers practical legislative experience and the chance to make a difference in the workings of the university," she commented.

Stacy was a Truman Scholarship nominee in 1980 and an Oxford Scholar in 1981. She was a member of the Alabama Student Coalition, Wesley Foundation, CCMA, Kappa Delta social sorority, and many honor societies. She enjoyed playing piano.

As SGA Vice President, Stacy also held the title of Senate President. Her activities involved presiding over meetings, making committee appointments, and assisting the President in coordination of SGA activities and programs.

Chas Powers
SGA Clerk

Chas Powers, the SGA Clerk, got involved in Student Government work as a freshman senator. Chas was a junior majoring in Biology and Chemistry in Troy's Pre-Med program. A native of Longwood, Florida, Chas enjoys skiing and horseback riding. Among his honors included the Daughters of the American Revolution Award.

Mr. Powers is a member of the Wesley Foundation, Gamma Beta Phi, Phi Eta Sigma, and held the position of president of Beta Beta Beta.

Chas feels that "politics has become a dirty word these days because of apathy. Until people start to get involved it will remain that way."

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court is the Student Judicial Body of the Student Government Association. The Supreme Court determines the constitutionality of any issue brought before the court and hears appeals from the inferior courts.

During the 1981-82 year the Court had only one meeting to determine whether the SGA could increase the number of places on the ballot for the Senate vacancy election without additional advertisement due to a last-minute vacancy. The Court ruled that the SGA could add the additional place on the ballot.

SGA SENATE

The SGA senate was composed of forty-two students: twenty-one on-campus and twenty-one off-campus. The senators, which are elected as representatives from the student body served on one of four committees: Academic, Student Life, Student Services, or Constitutional Rules.

The Senate was responsible for the upkeep and operation of the Used Textbook Exchange. The UTE gave students the opportunity to buy and sell used textbooks. The Senate, in conjuction with SGA officers planned and initiated the Homecoming Queen Pageant and Homecoming activities.

The Senate was responsible for the "Browse Session" in which campus organizations manned exhibits for promotional purposes.

Other activities sponsored by the Senate included the TWU Consumer Board, the student discount program, and the authorization to place change machines in the dorms.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

The Troy State University Young Democrats of Alabama reactivated their charter Spring Quarter 1981 under the leadership of Acting President Phillip Baker. Tim Hermetz of Cullman was appointed by Baker to serve as president of the TSU YDs until election fall quarter. Other officers elected at that time included Jamie Reyes, Vice President; Ulrica Jones, Secretary; and John Menge, Treasurer.

The purpose of the TSU YDs has been to stimulate in young people an active interest in governmental affairs, to recruit new members for Democratic candidates, to foster friendship and fellowship among members of the organization and thereby to promote their moral, intellectual and political well-being, and to preserve, improve and safeguard the principles and standards of the Democratic party.

Meetings consisted of such prominent speakers as Lamar Higgins and Gov. John Patterson. Four members attended the State Convention and Tim Hermetz was elected to be a delegate to the National Convention.

PHI ETA SIGMA

Phi Eta Sigma is a scholastic honor society which honors freshmen who meet those standards of required academic excellence. Freshmen who have maintained a 2.5 overall GPA are invited into membership the spring quarter of their freshman year.

Phi Eta Sigma conducted its annual initiation ceremony May 20, 1982. Twenty freshmen were inducted into membership. During the ceremony initiates were briefed on the history and the symbols used in the society. The officers for 1981-1982 were Ray Bendall, President, and Vicki Comer, Vice President. Following the ceremony, elections were held and Elaine Espy was selected as president, while Marylouise O'Brien was chosen as vice president. The new initiates were recognized during Honors Day ceremony.

GAMMA BETA PHI

Gamma Beta Phi is an honor society for students in the top twenty percent of their class. Presently at Troy State there are over 400 members. Nationally, there are over sixty chapters.

As an active service organization, Gamma Beta Phi sponsored various projects to involve members in activities. During fall registration, members sponsored a coke break in cooperation with the Coca-Cola Bottling Company. A canned food drive was held as the Thanksgiving project.

Projects were done periodically for the local elementary schools and group homes.

The State Gamma Beta Phi convention was held at Troy State University. Steve Benson was elected to the office of State Vice President.

One of the highlights of winter quarter was the Teacher Appreciation Day. Members presented silk roses with a note of appreciation to all faculty.

During spring quarter several members traveled to Asheville, North Carolina to attend the National Convention. Members who attended included Steve Benson, James Phillips, Anne Kimmel, Desiree Sutton, Charlene Hale, Associate Advisor, and Dr. Rosemary Canfield, Advisor.

Induction ceremonies were held both fall and spring quarters.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honor society, honors high scholastic achievement during the first year in college. Active membership is maintained through one's sophomore year.

Alpha Lambda Delta held initiation ceremonies during fall, winter, and spring quarters. During the ceremony initiates participated in a candle-light service. Graduating ALD members who met requirements were presented certificates of honor.

An amendment was passed enabling those members who obtained the necessary number of activity points to receive a letter of recommendation upon request.

Lesley Bondi attended the National Alpha Lambda Delta Convention and spoke during a winter quarter meeting.

This year the honor society presented Becky Surrency with the Outstanding Freshman Award during Honors Day activities.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board is an honor society which recognizes outstanding members of the senior class who have distinguished themselves in the areas of scholarship, leadership, and service and promotes these ideas.

During fall quarter, Mortar Board sponsored the fall sectional meeting attended by five universities and colleges. Also during fall quarter Mortar Board raffled off a football containing the signatures of the Trojan football team.

On April 13, a job placement seminar was sponsored to discuss job interviews, the job market, and placement service.

Any student maintaining a 3.0 GPA over fall and winter quarters were invited to attend the President's List Tea at the President's Home on May 6.

On April 5 twenty-five students were formally tapped during class and were recognized by wearing a mortar board for the remainder of the day. Formal initiation was held April 26 in the Adams Center.

During Honors Day activities, Mike Williams was presented the Faye Ellis Memorial Award. Mortar Board presents this award annually to the outstanding member of the senior class who best represents the ideals of scholarship, leadership, and service.

CHI ALPHA MINISTRIES

Chi Alpha is an interdenominational, full gospel college ministry sponsored by the Assemblies of God. The main philosophy of the ministry is a balanced structure in worship, discipleship, evangelism, and fellowship.

Chi Alpha ministries took a different direction in the 1981-82 school year. Chi Alpha left the Coffeehouse Ministry to get back to the basics of Christianity. A Monday night Bible study became the main thrust with emphasis being placed on the practical teachings of Christ: teachings that are designed to enhance growth in the college setting.

Chi Alpha continued with its evangelism efforts ministering at many different churches as the "Harvest Team" with music, drama, and puppets. The college group remained strong in its tract ministry stuffing mail boxes with tracts and periodicals covering a wide range of subjects from cults to salvation.

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY ASSOCIATION

The Catholic Campus Ministry Association at Troy State University promotes fellowship and Christian values among the registered students through a variety of social and educational activities.

Fall quarter, CCMA sponsored Nicole Carrier in the Homecoming pageant and entered a car in the Homecoming parade. They also sponsored a Soup-n-Sandwich dinner where a couple from Montgomery spoke on the subject of marriage.

During winter quarter, the CCMA entered the College Bowl tournament. Members of CCMA participated in the Valentine's Party sponsored by the Student Christian Council in cooperation with other religious organizations on campus. CCMA took part in the SGA Browse Session. They also participated in the BSU Volleyball Marathon.

Spring quarter, CCMA went to Auburn University in Montgomery and met with other Catholic College Students. There, they enjoyed dinner and a speaker. CCMA's final activity for the 81-82 academic year was a cook-out for graduating seniors.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union is the campus outreach of the Baptist churches in Alabama. Worship, Bible Study, mission activities and Christian fellowship are central to their program.

Vespers each Monday is the larger meeting providing worship and Christian fellowship. There are Bible study groups in the dorm as well as one meeting in the center each week. A thirty-voice BSU Choir has performed the musical "Believer" in several churches this year, while "Sonshine," the new BSU ensemble, has filled a number of engagements.

Mission activities include programs at the nursing home and a short-term project in Jacksonville, Florida. Two students were chosen to serve as BSU Summer Missionaries this year: Michelle Sanders and Tony Walters. The annual Volleyball Marathon during the winter quarter is the main source of raising money for summer missions each year.

Students from the Troy BSU attended the State BSU Convention in Tuscaloosa in the fall, the State Spring Conference at Shocco Springs, and the National Student Conference at Ridgecrest, North Carolina.

Students from all denominations are welcome to participate in the programs at the Baptist Student Union.

The Executive Council consisted of David Taylor, Music; Eddy Garner, President; Mark Johnston, Vespers; Ricky Skelton, Sports; Mr. O'Neal, Advisor; Mr. Elbert Williams, Campus Minister; Lisa Compton, Fellowship; Janice Skelton, Communications; Vicki Comer, Missions/Outreach; Beth Bracewell, Promotions; and Diane Barfield, Spiritual Growth.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation serves as the United Methodist Student Center at Troy State. Wesley Foundation's purpose is to outwardly profess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and to grow together in the Christian Faith. Some of the activities included Wesley Singers, Bible Study, Sports, and Prayer and Share. The main fellowship, held on Sunday nights, included a meal prepared by Wesley members followed by an inspirational program.

The Wesley members also had the opportunities to attend retreats, many social outings and an in-depth Bible teachings session. The Wesley Foundation extends on invitation for all Students to join them in Christian Growth.

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY

Arnold Air Society is a service organization primarily designed to provide aid to the community and to the cadet's ROTC Detachment and the Air Force mission. Arnold Air is open to any member of the ROTC program with a 1.5 or higher grade point average who has successfully completed the pledge training program.

The members of Arnold Air Society are college students who fit into their schedules time to participate in character activities. Some of the services included paper drives for the handicapped, ballgames with the children's home, and ushering at big name concerts.

The Outstanding Squadron Advisor was awarded to Captain Barnes. This year AAS lead a four-state area as the Headquarters for area-H. This area is composed of schools from Georgia, Alabama, Florida, and Puerto Rico.

ANGEL FLIGHT

Angel Flight is an honorary service organization of female students who support the purposes, traditions, and concepts of the U.S. Air Force, promote interest in the AFROTC, assist Arnold Air Society, and promote unity between the school and the community.

Angels sponsored their annual Bed Race during fall quarter to raise funds for the Boys Group Home. Every year Angel Flight sponsors the Bed Race to raise money for a needy individual or group from the Troy Area.

Angels also assisted with the first annual March of Dimes basketball game, the annual March of Dimes Walk-a-thon, and the Skate-a-thon for Cystic Fibrosis.

A girl scout troop is also sponsored by members. The Girl Scout leaders sponsored roller skating parties, cookouts, parties, and camping excursion.

Socially, Angel Flight sponsors both formal and informal parties, and participate in the Military Ball.

Area Conclave was held at Gainesville, Florida. Troy State returned with the following awards: The Purdue Cup, Outstanding Commander Award, Lt. Col. Bill Morley Award, and the Col. A.T. Reid Crimson Glory Award.

AFROTC

The 17 Cadet Group is involved in training young men and women to become future Air Force officers. The courses supplement regular academic instruction. In addition to classroom instruction, the cadets attend a leadership lab that is held once a week. The lab sessions consist of drill and ceremonies, military customs, plus general Air Force information.

During the year periodic trips to Air Force bases are scheduled. Cadets also participate in social activities such as picnics, plays, and dinners. These activities culminate at a formal military ball.

Two programs are offered in AFROTC at TSU. A four year program or a two year advanced program. Both programs are opened to students attending. TSU students can compete for scholarships which pay for tuition, books, and room and board.

ADAMS CENTER UNION BOARD

The Adams Center Union Board was composed of seven faculty members balanced by seven student members. ACUB provided appealing recreational activities, top notch entertainment, and a chance for students to expand their knowledge in a varied field of interest through non-credit classes.

This year ACUB showed such movies as "Ordinary People," "Arthur," "Somewhere in Time," and "Eyewitness." Big Name entertainers such as Jefferson Starship and Ronnie Milsap were brought in by ACUB. The Board also sponsored activities ranging from outdoor picnics and bands to casino nights. Fall quarter introduced students to a large screen T.V. for the Adams Center Dining Room. Movies recorded on video were shown twice a week over the screen TV.

ASSOCIATION OF NURSING STUDENTS

The Association of Nursing Students is an organization which develops leadership among nursing students and promotes membership in a professional level organization after graduation. The organization participated in extracuricular activities such as assisting in the TSU Blood Drive, participating in the Disaster Drill, and manning a blood pressure screening clinic in the Health Fair.

The main event of fall quarter was the capping ceremony for the sophomore nursing class. Twenty-eight students were recognized during the ceremony by receiving their official nurse's cap with ribbons. At this point in the sophomore's year, those students who were recognized at the ceremony had earned the right to wear the official nurse's cap.

Spring quarter activities included a freshmen reception for the incoming nursing students. In addition, ANS participated in the preparation of the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon on April 24.

LOCAL HONOR SOCIETY OF NURSING

The Local Honor Society of Nursing recognizes nursing students who have superior scholastic achievement, professional leadership potential, and/or marked achievement in the field of nursing. The qualifications for membership include an overall GPA of 2.0 as well as a 2.0 in all nursing courses.

The Local Honor Society of Nursing encompasses all three campuses.

In February, Miss Antonita Canzoneria, former missionary and nurse to Nigeria, spoke to the Honor Society. She compared nursing in rural Nigeria to nursing in the rural United States. She also discussed the cultural differences of rural Nigeria and its effect on health care practices.

On March 29, the Honor Society sponsored a CPR recertification seminar conducted by Mrs. Elvira Reynolds, Mrs. Betty Russell, members of the Honor Society, and Jill Mayo, faculty advisor for the Honor Society. The seminar was open to student nurses as well as the community.

An on going project of the Honor Society included providing free tutorial assistance to the junior and sophomore nursing students.

Initiates for membership were honored at the annual spring ceremony held this year April 30, 1982, at the First Methodist Church in Troy.

CIRCLE K

Circle K is the world's largest collegiate service organization, and is active on the Troy State champus. Circle K is self-governing and self-financing, working independently of, but in cooperation with the Kiwanis Club.

Two local members held positions on the Alabama District Board. Bonnie Bohner served as District Treasurer, and John Menge served as Lt. Governor.

At the beginning of the school year, members sold yearbook covers. Circle K also sponsored "Roll in the Hay" for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

During winter quarter members sponsored a drive for a local family whose home was destroyed by fire.

The Alabama District Convention in Montgomery was attended by five members.

Circle K also participated in the Special Olympics in Troy.

SNEA

The Student National Education Association, an organization open to all education majors, is the student group of the National Education Association and the Alabama Education Association. All members are kept informed on national and state education affairs through a weekly paper sponsored by the Alabama Education Association.

Each monthly meeting consisted of a special guest. This year SNEA presented some very interesting and helpful speakers to its members. Mrs. Watson spoke on laboratory experiences and the importance of them; the Pike County and Troy City superintendents gave some helpful interviewing tips; and Mr. Pete Farrar, a local elementary school principal, reviewed the expectations of student teachers. The purpose of these lectures were to prepare members for student teaching and job interviews.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi, an educational honor society, is recognized as the oldest honor society to be established on Troy State campus.

The theme for Kappa Delta Pi this year has been "A Look at Multicultural Education." Following that theme, the fall initiation dealt with the question, "What is Multicultural Education?" During the February 4 meeting a three-member panel presented "Fulfilling Our Responsibility to the Multicultural Student in the Classroom." "Education in Other Cultures" was the topic dealt with March 30 by TSU foreign students.

Officers attended the Biennial convention March 31-April 4 held in San Antonio, Texas.

Kappa Delta Pi makes annual contributions to the following scholarship funds: The L.S. Vanderford Memorial Scholarship Fund, The Foy Ingram Cummings Memorial Fund, and the Mary Will Berry Brown Memorial Scholarship Fund. The R.H. Ervin Award to the Outstanding Senior in Education and the W.P. Lewis Memorial Award to the Outstanding Junior in Education are presented by Kappa Delta Pi during Honor's Day ceremonies.

DPMA

The purposes of the Student Chapter fostered by DPMA have been to develop a better understanding of the nature and functions of data processing, to supply to its members information of the most current methods and assist them in solving their individual problems, and to foster among students a better understanding of the vital business role of data processing, the proper relationship of data processing to management and the necessity for a professional attitude among data processors in their approach to an understanding and application of the principles underlying the science of data processing. By serving these purposes, the Chapter hopes to provide a more professional and aware individual.

Speakers have lectured at various meetings of DPMA. Mr. Walton spoke on proper job techniques for CIS majors and minors. A movie was shown discussing computers versus privacy. Also the president and vice president of the DPMA at Alabama State spoke on the system that they use.

Moseley

Delta Sigma Pi is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in universities, to encourage scholarship, social activity, and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice, to promote a closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce and to further a higher standard of commercial ethics and culture and the civic and commercial welfare of the community.

1981-82 was an outstanding year for Troy State's Eta Kappa chapter. The annual Spring Fling featured a tour of several companies in Orlando, Florida. The chapter was awarded the Howard B. Johnson award for outstanding achievement by a chapter in the Southeastern Region, and they participated in the biennial Area Conference in Columbus, Georgia.

Delta Sigma Pi participated in such campus activities as the Angel Flight Bed Race, the BSU Volleyball Marathon, and the Pi Kap Bunny Contest. Members worked the ticket sales at the Miss TSU Pageant and a team of four won the TSU College Bowl Championship.

DELTA OMICRON CHI

Delta Omicron Chi Pre-health Honor Society promotes scholarship, develops professional attitudes and qualities, and promotes communication and cooperation between various health professions. This year several guest speakers from various health professions talked to the organization. The club has served as a medium for dissemination of information concerning professional school application and the Medical College Admissions Test.

During winter and spring quarters, members toured the USA and UAB medical schools. The big event of the year was the Health Fair sponsored by Edge Memorial Hospital, the Pike County Medical Auxiliary, and the Alabama Hospital Association. Delta Omicron Chi members maintained a booth which displayed items from the science classes in the pre-health curriculum. Members were also available to answer questions on the pre-health program at TWU and to conduct tours through the science facilities located in McCall Hall.

PHI ALPHA THETA

Phi Alpha Theta is an international honor society in History. Initiation was held each quarter at one of the faculty member's home. Fall initiation was held at the home of Dr. Duane Tway. Dr. Joseph Mitchell, Chairman of Curriculum Committee of the History and Social Sciences, led a discussion on curriculum. Winter initiation was held at the home of Dr. Norman Mitchell with Dr. Milton McPherson giving a presentation on the 35 millimeter camera and historical research. During spring initiation at Dr. Tway's home, the winner of the Colonial Dame Award for the best paper in American History presented his paper. Nine students were initiated into Phi Alpha Theta this year.

Other programs for the year were: Dr. Paul Friedman of Vanderbilt University with a presentation on his experiences as a historian, and Dr. William Barnard of the University of Alabama with a presentation on Graduate studies at Alabama.

Phi Alpha Theta made a contribution to the Dr. Donald Hoffman Fellowship Fund. As a fund raising project, members sold chances for dinners at local restaurants in the Troy area.

The Phi Alpha Theta award for highest G.P.A. went to Tim Venable, President of Phi Alpha Theta.

TSU DEBATE SQUAD

During fall quarter, the TSU Debate Squad held a national rank of 39th in the Cross-Examination Debate Association. Finalist round rankings, speaker trophies, and team win-loss records were compiled for the national ranking.

During winter quarter, the TSU squad participated at Auburn, Austin Peay University, and The Citadel.

The TSU Debate Squad gave a representative performance at The Citadel tournament, capturing two finalist trophies and establishing a winning ratio against debaters from Duke, Clemson, Bob Jones, Univ. of South Carolina, Wingate, Central State of Oklahoma, Univ. of Miami, Liberty Baptist, and the Univ. of North Carolina, Charlotte. The team of Gail Wright and Danny Cates gained a Quarterfinalist Trophy, and Danny Captured a Fifth-Place Speakers Trophy. The team of Omar Farooq and Chris Haug missed the finalist rounds by three speaker points and the team of Ramona Briley and Nick Angelo missed the finalist rounds by eight speaker points. Others representing TSU with a winning percentage were Bonita Austin and Lynne Marler, and Vickie Hammond and Julie Dorsey.

ARGONAUTS

Argonauts is a campus service organization which honors those students at Troy State University which possess leadership qualities.

Sophomores and juniors active in other organizations on campus were nominated by active members.

Argonauts sponsored the pep rally parade and bonfire during Homecoming. A van was also sponsored during the regular Homecoming parade to show school spirit.

Fun and Games Week was sponsored in May to subject initiates to embarrassing games in order to prove loyalty to the organization. The Annual Steak Cookout at Murphree Park was held May 6.

TROY STATE UNIVERSITY
FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Troy State University Foreign Language Club was organized by students to foster the interest in other cultures. Membership in T.S.U.'s Polyglots was open to all students wishing to promote the study of other cultures. Members of the faculty that provided sponsorship included Miss Cordelia Gray, Mr. James Sherry, and Dr Peter Howard.

Although the 1981-82 membership enrollment was low, special activities kept sponsors, members and officers busy. Fall quarter offered a special French film, "The Red Balloon", a special Spanish dinner at El Palacio's in Ozark, and a French wine and cheese party at the home of Mr. Sherry.

Much effort was put forth to make Winter quarter a success. Winterschmaus, a festive German dinner, was hosted by Dr. Howard and Mrs. Howard at their home.

Spring quarter gathered Polyglot members together to share in a special slide presentation of Paris narrated by Mr. Sherry.

Top: Polyglots members and other interested persons enjoy the Winterschmaus, a festive German dinner sponsored as a cultural fund-raising project.

SIGMA DELTA CHI

The Society of Professional Journalists, Sigma Delta Chi, is the largest, oldest and most respectative organization serving the field of journlism. Membership, open to second quarter or above journalism majors or minors in good standing with the university, enabled students to attend regional and national conventions where contact with possible future employers is afforded SPJ, SDX members.

The local chapter co-hosted the most successful TSU high school journalism workshop with twenty schools participating. The chapter also participated in the Hall School of Journalism's annual Spring Symposium which attracted state and national media personalities. A luncheon recognizing outstanding journalism seniors, and most SPJ, SDX members, saw Moira Kaye receive the Graduate with the Highest GPA award and Kyle Bozeman recieve the Outstanding Graduate award. Lorraine Bloeth received the Sigma Delta Chi Headliner of the Year Award at Honors Day.

ALPHA EPSILON RHO

THE NATIONAL BROADCASTING SOCIETY

On June 18th, 1981, a new professional honor organization was chartered on the Troy State University campus. Its name was Alpha Epsilon Rho, the National Broadcasting Society. The official installation ceremony took place on September 30th, 1981, with members of the Auburn AERho chapter officiating.

The objectives of this society shall be to encourage and reward scholarship and accomplishment among broadcasting students, and high level accomplishments in the art and science of broadcasting by both student and industry professionals, to promote the advancement of broadcast education, to establish meaningful communication between student and professional broadcasters, and to foster integrity in the use of the powerful instruments of radio, television, and film.

Serving as officers for the first year were Tamara Kuhn, President; Kyle Bozeman, Vice President; Arnessa Thomas, Secretary; Harold Brown, Treasurer; and Kenneth Ellis, Historian.

The faculty advisors of Troy State's AERho chapter were Steve Cobb, Assistant Professor of Journalism, and Bruce Mims, Program Director of WTSU-FM.

Individuals must have earned a "B" average or higher in their journalism courses, and have an overall "C" average in all other college courses in order to be admitted to active membership.

THE TROP

The Trop, a student university community newspaper at Troy State University, seeks to inform the students, faculty, administration, and staff of campus events. The Trop also attempts to stimulate opinion and invites all readers to contribute letters and suggestions.

The Trop is a weekly newspaper, published each Wednesday of fall, winter and spring quarters, excluding the week before and of final examinations. All writing, editing, layout, pasteup and selling of advertising is done by students at TSU.

The Trop provides practical experience for student journalists, who get an introduction to news reporting, editing, photography, and mechanical aspects of the newspaper. Editor of the Trop was Wendy Parker, Kevin Scarbinsky, Business Manager, Steve Scruggs, Assistant Editor; Genevieve Blizzard, News Editor; Willie Moore and Tom Sizemore, Photographers, Jay Booker, Cartoonist, Allison Monfee, Advertising Manager, and Kraig Scarbinsky, Circulation Manager. The advisor was Mr. Merrill Bankester.

THE PALLADIUM

Working on the Palladium, Troy State's yearbook, gives students the opportunity to use their creative skills to produce a professional book. Although most of the staff had had experience working on a high school yearbook or newspaper, only a minority of the workers are journalism majors.

Individuals are assigned either pages or sections in which they are responsible for getting information, scheduling pictures, writing copy, and doing the final layout. These pages are turned in at designated times. The mere mention of the word "deadline" can send chills through the spines of workers. But the late hours and numerous headaches seem worth the trouble when the finished product returns the following fall.

BETA

UPSILON SIGMA

Beta Upsilon Sigma is the Troy State University Sorrell School of Business Honor Society. The honor society recognizes college juniors and seniors for distinguished ability and exceptional achievement in scholarship in the field of business.

Membership into Beta Upsilon Sigma is limited to seniors with a GPA of 2.8 or above or who are in the top 5% of their class and seniors with a GPA of 2.6 or above or who are in the top 10% of their class.

The organization was founded by Shari Stark, a TSU 1981 graduate, Robert Pearson, a TSU senior, and Robert Palmer, a TSU accounting professor.

ISCO

The International Student Cultural Organization seeks to promote brotherhood and cultural understanding among people of different nations and cultural backgrounds. ISCO also attempts to assist foreign students in adjusting to American college life.

During fall quarter ISCO entered a float in the Homecoming parade and entered a candidate in the Homecoming Pageant. They also sponsored a Homecoming Party, Halloween Party, and numerous other get-togethers. A soccer team was organized by ISCO members.

The first International Festival was held by ISCO on January 30, 1982. Thirty-two different foods from twenty countries were served. Entertainment included a Parade of Nations, a Lebanese Folk dance, a belly dance, and a medley of Southern spirituals.

During spring quarter ISCO members sponsored a car wash to purchase soccer goals for the school. A Hawaiian Luau and a beach trip were also highlights for the quarter.

COLLEGIATE SINGERS

Troy State Collegiate Singers is a choral organization open to all students at TSU. Collegiates is directed by Dr. William R. Dennison. The group presents one concert each quarter.

Fall quarter members of the Collegiate Singers rehearsed most of the quarter for the annual Fall Sing. A touch of sacred and secular music provided a very enjoyable program.

The major musical work chosen for the winter performance was "Brahm's Requim." Tryouts for a tour group were held and several students selected.

Spring quarter the tour group began practicing. The tour group travelled to New Orleans, Louisiana to participate in a choral festival at Loyola University in New Orleans. The group held concerts in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and finally in New Orleans. While there the group visited the famous Bourbon Street.

The annual Pops Concert was held April 27. The group performed several numbers together and several solos and ensembles were performed by individuals.

Collegiate Singers also performed May 20 at the Honors Day ceremonies.

UNIVERSITY DANCERS

The University Dancers really stepped into the news this year.

Early in the fall they entertained at the Homecoming Pageant, spending the remainder of the quarter in preparation for appearances at the Kiwanis club banquet, the ISCO banquet, and their second annual production entitled "An Evening with the University Dancers." The Dancers made a special appearance at the Special Olympics in the Ft. Rucker Stadium.

Spring auditions introduced seven new members to the group: four girls and three guys.

ART GUILD

The Art Guild is an association of students whose common interest is the promotion of the Arts. The Art Guild has developed a sense of responsibility to expose the student body to the Arts.

Through the Art Guild, art students have the opportunity to exhibit their work at different art shows.

A Halloween Costume Party was held complete with a haunted house and tarrot card reading. Also fall quarter the Art Guild decorated Kilby Hall during Homecoming activities.

Some members entered the Piney Woods Arts Festival at Enterprise State Jr. College in which Cathia Mooney returned with a first place in sculpture. Two members judged the South Montgomery Academy Art Show.

Art Guild members participated in a photography show at the end of spring quarter in Kilby Hall Gallery. They also had showings in the gallery on a regular basis throughout the year.

The Spring Art Show was held in cooperation with the May Day Festival. Exhibits were shown and prizes awarded in four major divisions.

The Art Guild worked hard towards re-establishing the Kappa Pi International Honorary Art Fraternity at TSU.

TSU GOSPEL CHOIR

The Troy State University Gospel Choir was founded October 1, 1980. The over forty-voice choir has toured Alabama, Georgia, and Florida with local performances at Troy State University, St. Paul's Methodist Church, Bethel Baptist Church, and First Baptist Church of Troy.

The TSU Gospel Choir has participated in the Annual Tribute to the late Dr. Martin Luther King. The Choir presented their Annual Winter Quarter Concert on Sunday, February 7, 1982. Selections presented that evening included "Call Him Up," "Praying Spirit," "God Will Open Doors," and "Changed." Members of the choir are directed by a student choir-member.

MUSIC EDUCATOR'S NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Music Educator's National Conference is a professional fraternity for Music majors, minors, and any individual who shares a love for music and wants to support the art. MENC has been active on Troy State's campus and has worked hard to become even more so. TSU's chapter of MENC is the only chapter in the entire state of Alabama. As a group, MENC has invited professionals to come and speak to the organization on various aspects of music: performing, teaching, history, composing, etc. Professional hours were offered to education majors who attended the various meetings. This year MENC sponsored its first annual Womanless Beauty Contest. The pageant materialized into an outstanding success. The "guys" enjoyed the challenge, and the audience definitely received their money's worth of laughs. Members discussed such possibilities for the future as exhibits, workshops, and tours of Troy State's music department for high school and junior high school students.

TAU BETA SIGMA

Tau Beta Sigma is an honorary service sorority at Troy State University. It promotes spirit within the band through service projects and activities.

Tau Beta Sigma started their work early this year for the Sound of the South. The sisters provided Kool-Aid for the band members at the rehearsals. They helped hand out uniforms during marching band season. Fall quarter Tau Beta Sigma sponsored a freshman picnic to better acquaint freshman with the band. The sisters also sponsored the annual Halloween party for the band, and a Christmas party at the Blue-Gray game. They also helped Phil Kelley with the opera department.

Winter quarter was pledge quarter and thirteen new sisters were initiated. This was a busy quarter in that they ran the state band contest and the Southeastern States Band Clinic with Kappa Kappa Psi. They also held the District Eight Convention which involved Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

Spring quarter was Tau Beta Sigma Founders Day, May 18. Elections were held and officers took charge.

Sigma Alpha Iota is an international academic music fraternity for women. One of the many national projects that Sigma Alpha Iota supports annually is the MacLowell Colony.

Fall quarter the sisters ushered the annual Fall Sing given by the Troy State Collegiate Singers. Several teas and parties were held to invite new members who might be interested in joining the fraternity.

Winter quarter was pledge quarter and there were twelve pledges. The pledges sold carnations on Valentines Day as a money raising project. A punch bowl set was given to the chapter as a pledge project. A money raising project that pledges and sisters participated in was the annual Rock A Thon. The money raised went to Sigma Alpha Iota and the philanthropies of the fraternity. The event lasted for ten hours and a submarine sandwich party highlighted the event. Some of the sisters were able to attend the Province Weekend at the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia. Sisters and pledges made bookmarks and carried them.

Spring quarter the newly elected officers took charge. The sisters performed "Love is Blue" at the Spring Pops Concert and several participated in solos and ensembles.

PHI MU ALPHA

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is the national music fraternity for men. On the Troy State campus the Iota Nu Chapter has held the distinction of being one of the first national fraternities to establish a fraternity here.

Fall quarter the annual Jacksonville State Car Smash was held to raise money for Phi Mu Alpha. The Province Workship was held in Troy this fall. Officers from all over the state came and exchanged ideas for programs and projects.

Spring quarter the chapter held the annual American Composers Concert. The Phi Mu Alpha brothers performed numbers as a group and solos and ensembles were also performed. Most of the selections were by American composers. In March the Province Banquet was held in Anniston, Alabama. The Jacksonville chapter sponsored the event and some members from the Iota Nu chapter attended. As a money raising project, the brothers sold chances to an all expense paid beach weekend. Many of the members of Phi Mu Alpha had roles in The Pirates of Penzance on stage while others were in the orchestra pit or on the stage crew.

Kappa Kappa Psi is a National Honorary Band Fraternity operating exclusively in the field of college and university band. Membership is open to all majors.

Fall quarter the work began early for Kappa Kappa Psi with the responsibility of handing out uniforms to the marching band members. They also prepared water and Kool aid for the band rehearsals.

Winter quarter was pledge quarter and twelve new brothers were accepted into the fraternity. Kappa Kappa Psi along with Tau Beta Sigma hosted the District Eight Convention and ran the state contest held here. The Southeastern States Band Clinic held here in Troy was hosted by Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma.

Spring quarter Kappa Kappa Psi celebrated Founders Week May 17-23 with founders Day May 18. The annual Phi Mu Alpha-Kappa Kappa Psi softball game was held May 21. Dr. Volrath wrote a symphony for the fraternity and the brothers copied it by hand in order for it to be performed.

Each year the fraternity gives such awards as the Paul Yoder Scholarship and the F. Lee Bowling Award to deserving brothers.

TSU MARCHING BAND

"It's A Lot Of Work, But It's Worth It."

From the stirring rendition of "Dixie", to a tribute to the King of Rock-n-Roll, the Troy State University Sound of the South Marching Band executes class and spirit to perform endless halftimes with various appearances throughout the South.

The "Sound" had the distinct privilege of performing the half-time shows at the Atlanta Falcons game in front of over 50,000 people. The band was aired over ABC-affiliated stations during the Troy-UNA game. Many band members sacrificed being with their families on Christmas day to march in the Blue-Gray Classic in Montgomery. The "Sound of the South" participated in the Southeast States Marching Festivals. They also participated in festivals in Enterprise and Birmingham.

What many people don't realize is that the band was here for band camp one week before Fall quarter began. Members had one week to learn the basic format of the shows. The continual practices lasted from early morning to late night. John Hillsman, the student drill instructor, wrote the drill used this year.

Through all the hard work, many students can find pleasure in seeing their long practices materialize into stirring halftime performances. As one freshman stated, "It's a lot of work, but it's worth it!"

In Memory of Georgia Gill Davis

Georgia Davis joined the Troy State University Nursing faculty in 1977. Before coming to Troy Mrs. Davis had served as an instructor at the nursing school at the V.A. Hospital in Tuskegee, Al. and as well as at the School of Education and the School of Nursing at Tuskegee Institute.

Mrs. Davis was a member of American Nurses' Association — Alabama District 5, American Association of Critical Care Nurses, National League for Nursing, Phi Delta Kappa Educational Fraternity, American National Red Cross, Sigma Theta Tau, American Personnel and Guidance Association, Alabama Personnel and Guidance Association, American Rehabilitation Association, and the Association of Non-White Concerns in Personnel and Guidance.

Mrs. Davis was also a member of the National Heath Committee — Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Nirella Chapter — Order Eastern Star, Jack and Jill Inc. of America, and Mrs. Davis was also a Sunday School Teacher at Washington Chapel AME Church.

Arts and Sciences

The College of Arts and Sciences devotes itself to the cultivation of ideas, independent thinking, and reasonable, critical judgements. Through a knowledge of both past and contemporary thought, it promotes appreciation for the achievements of mankind. Finally, it seeks to encourage a spirit of understanding and tolerance toward greater and more informed participation in a democratic society.

Education

The School of Education is organized into three departments: Education and Psychology, Health and Physical Education, and Human Services. Education programs offered include Early Childhood (Nursery-Grade 3), Elementary (Grades 6-1), Middle School (Grades 4-8), Secondary (Grades 7-12), and Nursery-Secondary (Nursery Grade 12) in art, health and physical education, music, and special education. Programs offered in the Department of Human Services include Rehabilitation, Social Rehabilitation Services, and Social Work. During the 1980-81 school year, approximately two hundred students completed programs in Education, eleven in Psychology, and thirty-seven in Human Services.

Dr. James Kimbrough serves as Dean of the School of Education and Chairman of the Department of Education and Psychology. Other administrators in the School of Education include Dr. Joavenell McCoy (Early Childhood Education Coordinator), Dr. Robert McCombs (Elementary Education Coordinator), Dr. Patricia Hardin (Special Education Coordinator), Dr. Ralph Erickson (Secondary/Middle School/N-12 Coordinator), Dr. Anna Smith (Psychology Coordinator), Dr. Gene Hanson (Chairman of the Department of Health and Physical Education), Mr. Joseph Harrington (Chairman of the Department of Human Services), and Mrs. Virginia Watson (Director of the Professional Laboratory Experiences).

School Of Business

For many years, the Sorell School of Business and Commerce was known as the Business Department — a carryover from the period when the University was Troy State Teachers College. In 1971, the School of Business and Commerce was formally established. Ten years later, in June 1981, the Sorrell School of Business and Commerce came into being. The school was named in honor of the late Jeff Sorrell, a prominent local businessman who bequeathed the University, particularily the School of Business and Commerce, a substantial sum upon his death.

The Sorrell School of Business and Commerce is organized into three units: dean's office, academic departments, and the Center for Business and Economic Services. Seven heterogeneous disciplines are represented within the school. Of the 312 graduates during the 1980-81 academic year, most were in the areas of management, computer science, accounting, and marketing.

A milestone occurred in March 1982 with the formation of four academic departments within the school: Accounting, Finance, and Business Law; Business Education; Computer Science and Quantitative Methods; and Marketing, Management, and Economics. Department chairmen are, respectively, Professor Eugene Sherman, Dr. Eva Carr, Professor LeRoy Walton, and Dr. G. T. Stewart.

The basic objective of the Sorrell School of Business and Commerce, compromising over one third of the total enrollment of the University, is to provide best possible education for students — a quality education to enable them to become more productive and better citizens. Personal attention is emphasized, each student has an academic advisor from the School of Business. Good teaching is stressed.

Further, the educational philosophy of the school is strongly embedded in the free enterprise approach to business. The American political system with its democratic ideals, its emphasis upon individualism, and its reliance upon people has been supported by the private enterprise system. The faculty of the Sorrell School of Business and Commerce adheres to the principles and virtues of this system.

Fine Arts

Founded in 1971 with the divisions of music, visual arts, and speech/dramatic arts, the Troy State University School of Fine arts is designed to stimulate academic and artistic excellence within a liberal arts setting. The School of Fine Arts reinforces the overall objectives of the university and places particular emphasis on developing in students an increasing appreciation and enjoyment of the arts as a medium of rich personal satisfaction by providing a variety of experiences based on needs, interests and capacities.

The School of Fine Arts stresses education of the whole person toward an integration of self and the place of self in the world. The school provides an opportunity for the entire student body to experience the richness of our cultural heritage through concerts performed by members of the "Sound of the South" Band, operas, operettas and musical comedy performed by Opera Workshop participants, visual arts exhibits sponsored by the Department of Arts and Classics, and a broad range of dramatic literature brought to life on the stage by the university Playmakers.

Journalism

From a modest beginning in 1972, the Hall School of Journalism has become the fastest-growing journalism program in the state. The school was named for the Hall family of distinquished Alabama journalists.

Frequent seminars and the annual Spring Symposium sponsored by the School of Journalism have brought many outstanding journalists to the campus. These seminars and symposiums are a regular part of a journalism program designed to benefit the student. Professionals from every realm of journalism offer the students many viewpoints and opportunities to meet the possible employers.

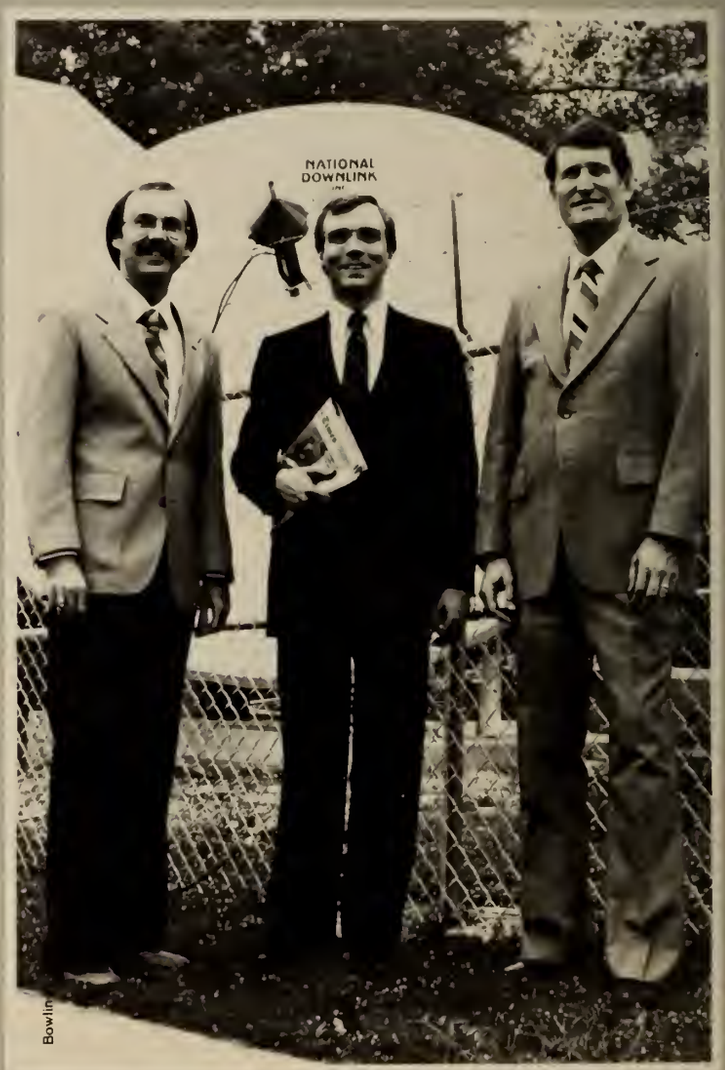

In 1980, an endowed Chair of Journalism was established with a bequest of 750,000 to bring nationally known journalists to the campus as visiting professors.

In order to involve students more in their profession a chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists, Sigma Delta Chi, was established in 1975, and a chapter of Alpha Epsilon Rho, national broadcasting society, was chartered in 1981.

The three full time faculty members have all had several years in the profession before getting into the world of academia.

Stephen Cobb came to Troy State in the fall of 1980 as an Assistant professor in the Hall School of Journalism. Mr. Cobb is a member of SPJ, SDX, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and serves as a faculty advisor to Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Alpha Epsilon Rho. He is also an amateur photographer and enjoys playing tennis, softball, listening to music and bicycling.

Boyd Campbell also joined the journalism faculty in the fall of 1980 as an instructor. He likes to work in his wood shop and run with Maggie, his Labrador retriever. His interests include politics, economics, the law, softball and music.

Merrill Bankester, who was named Dean of the School of Journalism in June, 1981, came to Troy State from Memphis State University. Prior to getting into teaching, he spent nine years in newspapers in Alabama and Florida. He spends his spare time attending Troy State athletic events. He is also adviser to Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

School of Nursing

The TSU School of Nursing under the administration of Dr Patricia L Starck, Professor of Nursing and Dean, School of Nursing, is a multi-dimensional system of nursing education with four units, giving the student an option in type and location of program. The units are, Associate of Science in Nursing Degree program and the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree program in Troy with outreach courses in Montgomery and Dothan. In addition to beginning freshman, both programs offer advanced placement opportunities for LPN's and RN's as well as for transfer students.

Both ASN and BSN programs, including outreach campus sites, are approved by the Alabama Board of Nursing and accredited by the National League for Nursing. The total annual nursing enrollment is approximately 600; graduations per year average 150.

The selection of the program is based on individual learner needs. Persons who select the Associate of Science in Nursing Program may complete the course of studies in seven sequential quarters and begin the practice of nursing. For associate degree nurses, who wish, educational mobility opportunities are available which lead to the Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing.

Learners who elect to pursue the basic Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing proceed from a foundation of science and arts which leads to practice in a variety of professional settings. The Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree also prepares the graduate for opportunities to pursue graduate education. Graduates of the Associate and Bachelor's Degree Programs are eligible to apply to write the State Board of Nursing Examination to become registered nurses.

The Troy State University School of Nursing utilizes a variety of clinical facilities for learning experiences. Hospitals, clinics, nursery schools, health departments and nursing homes are examples of agencies where students practice.

The BSN program in Troy was initiated in 1969 to meet the health care need of geographical area served by the University. It is presently under the administration of Dr. Colleen Dilorio, Assistant Dean. The ASN program began in 1971 and is under the administration of Dr. Jean Mann, Associate Dean. In 1980 TSU became the first program in the State of Alabama and one of the few programs in the nation to have an endowed Chair in Nursing. The Anise J. Sorrell Chair is occupied by Distinguished Visiting Professors of national and international distinction.

TSU boasts 852 nursing alumni who are active professionals and are making a significant contribution to society. TSU's Department of Continuing Education in Nursing under the administration of Ms. Pat Davis, offers workshops and seminars to provide working nurses with up-to-date knowledge in a rapidly changing health care field.

Students in the School of Nursing participate in extra curricular activities on campus. In addition, nursing students are involved in many community service projects, such as health fairs, blood pressure screening clinics, blood drives, and disaster drills.

College of Special Programs

The College of Special Programs was established August 1, 1981. It is comprised of all off-campus regions, branches, and educational locations. These are located at Bay Minette and Phenix City, Alabama, the Florida region (Eglin AFB, Hurlburt Field, Pensacola NAS, and Whiting Field), Ft. Benning and Moody AFB, Georgia, and on thirty military bases in Europe and Turkey. The campuses at Dothan and Montgomery are not in the College of Special Programs because they are candidates for seperate accredidation.

The students at off-campus locations are usually older than those on the main campus and classes are normally scheduled for evenings and other off-duty hours. Also, most of the students have full-time occupations outside the classroom.

During a typical academic quarter, more than 3,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate programs and approximately 1,700 students are in graduate programs. Typically, more than 300 faculty members are involved.

The most common academic programs offered at the College of Special Programs are business, management, international relations, personnel management, and criminal justice.

The College is administered by Dean Nolan Hatcher who is assisted by Dr. Frederick Stewart, the Director of Education Service, and Dr. Ralph Taylor, European Liaison Officer. There is also a small staff of two secretaries and three clerks.

Graduate School

The University was authorized by the State Board of Education to offer the master's degree in 1958. In 1978, the administration organized all graduate education into a Graduate School with programs leading to advanced degrees in the Arts and Sciences, Business and Commerce, and in Education.

The School is part of the centralized supervisory system which is responsible for the thousands of graduate students from Oslo, Norway to Fort Walton Beach, Florida. There are 34 European locations on military bases in West Germany, England, Holland, Turkey, Norway, Greece, Italy, Spain, and the Isle of Crete. The School has extension graduate education programs in Florida and Georgia in addition to those programs within the State of Alabama at Troy, Dothan, Fort Rucker, Montgomery, Bay Minette, and Phenix City.

Currently, graduate degrees are offered in International Relations, Public Administration, Business, Management, Personnel Management, Computer and Information Sciences, Counseling and Human Development, Foundations of Education, Criminal Justice, Elementary Education, Early Childhood Education, Special Education, Adult Education, and several other teaching areas in Secondary Education.

The Graduate School's purpose fits nicely into the Univeristy's philosophy which is to provide educational opportunities for the people of the state of Alabama as well as for military personnel serving their country.

President Adams appointed Dr. Rudy Argenti as Dean of the Graduate School in 1978. "I literally grew into the position after serving eight years as the Director of the Graduate Division". Argenti, originally appointed to a teaching position in 1962, left the University in 1966 to complete his doctorate at the University of Tennessee. Since returning in 1968 he has held several posts within the School of Education. Dr. Argenti spends his leisure time playing tennis and jogging.

Dr. Rudi Argenti

History Professor

Receives Ingall's Award

Dr. William Morris Welch, Jr. received this year's Ingalls Award. The Ingall's award is an honor given by the Ingall's Foundation of Birmingham. It is the highest honor given to a Troy State University faculty member.

Dr. Welch has been a professor at Troy State since 1978. After receiving his BA degree in history at the University of Alabama, Dr. Welch moved to Rome, Italy to continue his education at the Institute of Mediterranean Studies. He completed his Doctorate in Philosophy at Oxford University in England in 1978.

The Ingall's Award Recipient is chosen by a committee of students. Dr. Welch was honored with a plaque and a check for $1,000 on Honor's Day.

TSU European Region

This academic year has been eventful in that the mayor of Weisbaden, W. Germany, Herr Otto Jacob, visited the Troy main campus. Since Mayor Jacob had an honorary Presidency of Troy State University conferred upon him at graduation last year, we were fortunate to have him visit our campus this year while he was making an official visit to the United States.

The Honorable Wiston S. Churchill, Member of Parliament, was the graduation speaker this year at ceremonies held in Weisbaden, W. Germany, and on the grounds of Cambridge University, Cambridge, England.

The academic program in the European Region continues to expand. The bachelor's and master's degrees in Computer and Information Science have now been included in the European curriculum. Also, another location in the United Kingdom has been added to the European "campus."

Pushin' It!

Sweating, hurting, and pushing, that is what striving for improvement is all aobut. The monotony must be unbearable at times.

Then comes those moments of glory when you are in the spot light. That's when it all pays off and you know it was all worthwhile. For the athlete it is the game when you gave 110% and it paid off. For the performer it is the half time show when you feel like you could fly, when everything goes smoothly and you begin to lose yourself in what you are doing.

When it comes easy, that is when you know it was worth the effort.

FOOTBALL:
The Season in Review

It was a season of the unexpected.
From injuries, to dismissals, to TV coverage
1981 saw it all.

Game #1

The Pacers outplayed the Trojans from the start. At half-time the scoreboard told a 6-0 story with the University of Tennessee Martin leading. Troy took its only lead in the third quarter as McKinnon scored on a dive play from the three yard line on fourth down and goal. Tenn.-Martin scored two more times in the fourth quarter to finish off a sound defeat of 19-7.

Game #2

Troy State had an eventful night at Dothan's Rip Hewes Stadium where the Trojans ripped the Ram's defense. Albany State was held scoreless by a strong TSU defense and Troy's offensive line did what is expected of a good offensive team; they gave good protection and plenty of time for the quarterback. It was, however, a costly win for Troy State. Shortly after he scored the first touchdown of the game, #45, John Anthony was lost for the season with a broken ankle.

Game #3

Nicholls State proved how effective a good passing game could be. After the Colonels had already scored once, it was freshman, Mike Hunt who put Troy on the board as fans cheered on the Trojans during TSU's first home game. Kelvin Murdock took in a Hunt pass for the second touchdown. Smith had an impressive run as he took in a Nicholls' punt at his own 28 and proceeded 72 yards for Troy's third TD. Fowlkes ran in a two point conversion making the score 20-7. After the Colonels scored again Mason gained 87 of the 90 yards on Troys final drive. The Colonels secured a safety but it wasn't enough. TSU had come out on top but the opinion of some was that this was the one that was "too close for comfort."

Game #4

It was a night of "almosts". The Trojan's offense let excellent scoring opportunities pass them by. It just seemed like things wouldn't start clickin' for Troy. By half-time the score was 7-7 and as the Trojans came back for the third quarter things didn't look good. The Choctaws kicked two field goals back to back and then another touchdown to make the score 19-7. Finally Troy scored again on an impressive pass from McKinnon to Murdock. The game ended 19-13 in Mississippi's favor. If a one-word reason had to be given for the loss it would more than likely be errors — personal, mental, and physical errors that Coach Bradshaw felt caused a need for regrouping and concentrating on each individuals specific tasks.

Game #5

Words like heartbreaking, sickening, and chaotic were used to describe the events that took place in Troy's Memorial stadium October 10 as the Trojans let the Lions of Southeastern Louisiana slip up on them in the fourth quarter to pull a win. After SLU scored a field goal the Trojans took a progressive lead. The offense looked swift as the Trojans scored 7-3. Troy scored again with a pass from McKinnon to Smith on a third and six yards to go play. Va Wie's kicking was successful for the second time and the score became 14-3. TSU scored a third time making it 21-3 at the half. Everyone was content, everyone but the Lions.

As Troy's interceptions and personal fouls began to add up SLU managed to pull through 22-21. This was Troy State's first home defeat since Texas A&I in 1978.

Game 6

The title "no-name" defense coined by TSU announcer Ralph Black was appropriate if not a little ironic as these young men led the Trojans to their first GSC win of the season. Doug Brown scored the only touchdown of the night. A picturesque play was made in the last 53 seconds of the game as Murdock went up for a 22-yard spiral but the play was called back for offensive pass interception. Bradshaw commended the newly formed team for a well executed effort.

Game 7

Troy fought the weather and the odds for the first half of the game as fans looked on under blankets and umbrellas. The crowd rose to the sound of Dixie as fast as they could under the circumstances when the Trojans scored first over the heavily favored Lions of UNA. The Lions then met the challenge by evening things up 7-7. The University of North Alabama scored again on a 25 yard field goal. Then it was Brown's turn to take the Trojans in 66 yards in 10 plays to go ahead 13-19. The turning point of the game seemed to be on a pass interception made by Gary Bradshaw in the third quarter. Had the Trojans been able to capitalize on this play, the coach thought things might have been different. The University of North Alabama scored two more times to finish the game ahead 24-12. For Troy the game seemed to drizzle out after halftime but all things considered for Troy State University's first televised game ever it was a good show.

Game 8

The Tennessee Tech. Eagles opened the game with a 7-0 lead. Troy evened things up and then a Tenn. Tech. field goal made the score 10-7 at the half. The Trojans led early in the third after Arnold brought in a 51 yard touchdown. It was Gilroy who kicked the extra point to bring the Trojans ahead again 14-10. Then it was as if Tenn. Tech. got a second wind. It was a battle to the end but the Eagles came out a winner 37-28.

Game 9

Interceptions were the main reason TSU took a loss to Livingston. Early in the first quarter the Trojans went from their own 33 yard line to Livingston's second yard line. Brown hit the line twice for no gain. Next, Troy was intercepted in the end zone. The score at the end of the first quarter was 0-0. With the second quarter came another Brown pass interception. Five plays later Livingston scored. As if that wasn't enough a McKinnon pass was also intercepted making the score 14-0. TSU suffered another interception and two fumbles in the third quarter. The second fumble resulted in a Livingston 44 yard drive for a field goal. Overall the Trojans outgained Livingston 259-190 yards total offense. The final score was 17-0. It was the first time TSU had ever been shut out by a GSC team. Troy State University went into their final match with a 6-0 record.

Game 10

Jacksonville State scored first then Troy scored early in the second on a Brown pass to Fowlkes thus tying things 7-7. A Brown pass to Murdock for a 34 yard resulted in the Trojans second touchdown. Later, Arnold intercepted a pass that led to a Gilroy 23 yard field goal making the score 17-7. After that the Gamecocks made a 50 yard field goal with no time left in the first half. During the second half a TSU fumble on the 20 yard line resulted in a Jax State score two plays later. That tied things 24-24. In the end Smith traveled forty-eight yards to get a first down at their 13 with little over a minute left. The Trojans were stopped two yards short of the goal with 41 seconds remaining. Troy had lost their last game to the Gamecocks 31-24. But Senior Tim Bryan summed it up when he said, "When they got out of here, they knew that they had played Troy State."

TR-OJ-ANS Weh . . .

The TSU cheerleaders begin their season with tryouts in the spring. Those trying out for a position on the squad, are judged on their double stunts, cheers, chants, jumps, and pom pom routines. The new squad then begins to prepare for summer camp, which is held in Memphis, Tennessee. At camp the cheerleaders learned new routines, met with other squads from the southeast, and were judged on their cheerleading ability.

The fall is a very busy quarter for the TSU cheerleaders. The squad practices every day preparing for pep rallies and football games. After the football season the cheerleader's work is not over; they then begin work on routines for the basketball season. The cheerleaders make plans for spring tryouts during the winter quarter as well. During the spring quarter, individual cheerleaders often judge high school tryouts. Some members of the squad teach cheerleader clinics during the summer. It is easy to see that being a cheerleader means staying busy.

New Innovative Coach — Old Winning Tradition

This year's cross country team saw it's eighth straight Gulf South Conference Championship and it's third straight NCAA division II southeast regional title. Troy State finished twelfth in Division II at the National Championship in Massachusettes.

According to their new head coach, Ed Sheehan, it was a season of enthusiasm, closness, and adjusting. Sheehan said, "The season as a whole was a good starting point for what looks like an extremely successful season next year."

Trojan Hostesses

For the fourth year, the Trojan Hostesses have assisted the TSU Athletic Department, by giving guided tours of the campus to recruits and their families, working in promotion of spirit for the Trojans and in fundraising efforts.

The squad of 20 Trojan Hostesses is picked annually after receiving applications and conducting interviews.

First row: Tonya Kirkland, Tina Delaigle, Tyanna Jones, Cynthia Smoke, Chris McCarthy, Perian Fiveash. Row two: Kim Simpson, Jennifer Moer, Shari Lewis and Pam Cochran.

Trojan Trackettes

The Trojan Trackettes had a busy year in 1982. They worked the Troy Invitational Cross Country Meet, the Troy Relays and the Troy Early Bird Invitational. The Trackettes also traveled to Jax. State for the conference meet.

The Trojan Trackettes has developed into a service organization with their number one goal being to support the TSU track team. The club; however, is also social in that they have rush and the unity of friendships.

HPER Club

The HPER Club serves to promote progress in physical education and to encourage social and professional development through participation and leadership. The club is made up of Health and Physical Education majors and minors.

During the year the HPER Club sponsored many activities. In cooperation with the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance the club sponsored the "Jump Rope for Heart" project which benefited the American Heart Association. Other events that the club sponsored were the Red Cross Blood Drive in the fall and the spring and the AAHPER Physical Fitness Workshop. The HPER Club also hosted the Special Olympic Workshop, administered physical fitness tests to students at the Laura Montgomery Elementary School, published the HPER Newspaper, officiated the Intramurals, and participated in the NPER Week.

Many members, in addition to sponsoring these events, attended the ASHHPER Convention at Samford University.

The Cardiac Kids

The TSU volleyball fans had their big thriller when Jacksonville State was trampled by Troy State's "Cardiac kids". Where did the 1981 volleyball team get such a name? It came from the fans who watched from the edge of their seats all season as the team volleyed back and forth to finish up 20-12 for the year. That might not sound like too much of a heart pulsing record but those who traveled to such games as Troy's final one of the regular season against Jax State would quickly tell you different. It was typical of the kind of ball that they played all season, where you don't dare miss the game because of the excellent competition but at the same time it is sheer torture to watch as the score shifts constantly.

This year's team was the youngest and the shortest in the state. Out of the ten starters only four were returning players. These four were all sophomores. The new girls on the team included four freshman and two junior college transfer students who were all making the adjustment of their new environment.

Three ladies made all-state. They were sophomore, Patty Scmitz, who also made all-tournament, sophomore, Molly Baker, and freshman, Katie Brown. During the State tournament TSU lost only to Montevallo and Jax State. Throughout the season the squad provided a good show to all who supported them.

Basketball

Bizillia's 1982 Basketball team was another young one. Daron Fayson, George Cowan, and Mac Madison were the returning front line starters.

The team as a whole lacked experience which made them unpredictable. Troy State ended its season with a disappointing 11-13 which put them 6th in the Gulf South Conference.

At the end of the season, TSU brought in a new man named Don Maestri, who had previously been employed as an assistant coach at the University of Alabama, to lead the Trojans.

Team Scores High in Individual Achievement

Troy's 1981-82 women's basketball team was a young and rebuilding one. Says Coach Sorrell, though the team was aggressive, they were young and lacked experience in college play.

On an individual basis the team scored high in personal achievements. Valerie Privett made All-State and was nominated for Academic All-American. Awarded Honorable Mentions were Kim Tolbert and Shirley Haynes. Named to the All-Tournament team was freshman Janice Moore. Each year Alabama presents a Whit Lee Memorial Award, the highest honor given in the state for academic accomplishment, athletic ability, and personal character. This year, Troy's own Sharon Harkins shares the honor with Lynn Lamb of Judson College.

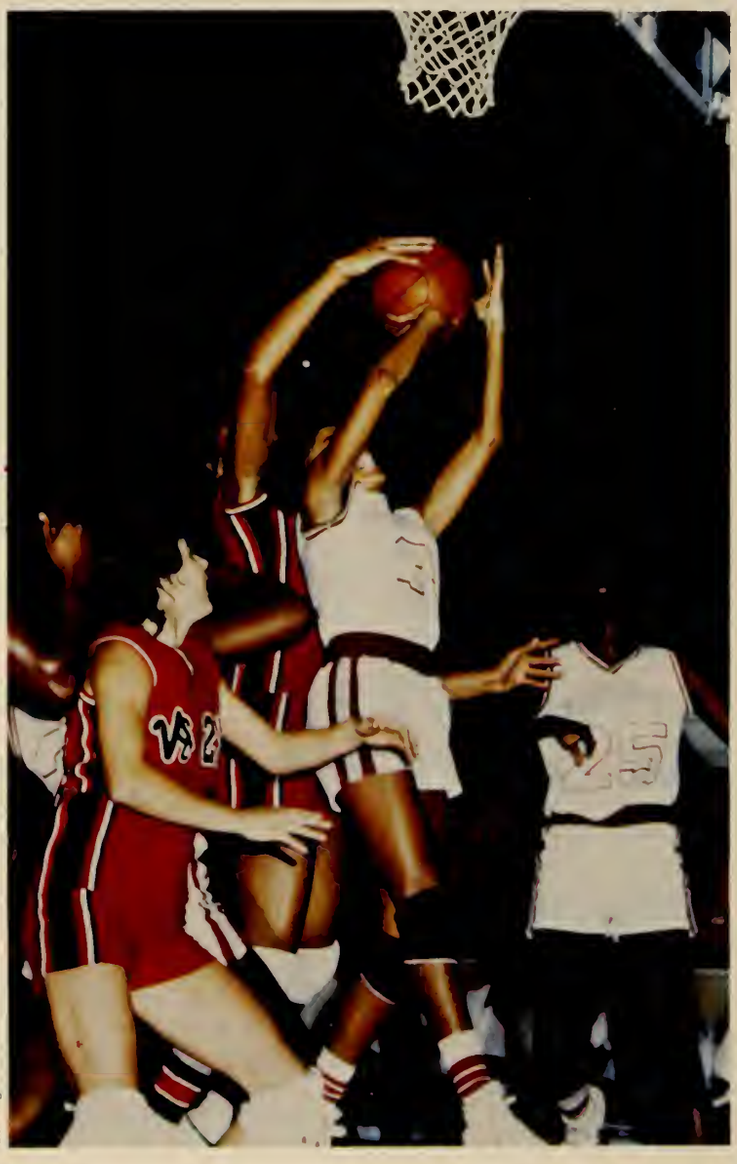

Coach Sorrell's plans for next year include a multi-dimensional offense. Six sophomores, two juniors, and three seniors will return for the '82-'83 season with Coach Sorrell hoping to add three recruits to aid the team's new strategy — a strategy which includes a winning season.

Synchro Club

The 1982 TSU Synchronized Swim Team began recruiting members in early September 1981. Synchronized swimming, commonly referred to as water ballet, is relatively new to the TSU campus. Its origins at Troy State can be traced to Fall 1978 when a small group of swimmers began organizing a team.

Students interested in joining the team must be at least in an intermediate swim level. Skills are taught during practice sessions, which usually meet twice a week.

Synchronized swimming includes the skills involved in competitive swimming, water polo, gymnastics and ballet. These skills are incorporated into routines which are synchronized with both music and swimmers.

The team trained in the fall and winter quarters in order to prepare for a water show at the end of winter quarters 1982, which was entitled "Spaceodyssea 82."

Organization is the key. The men with the ideas have to be able to relate these plans to the group through individual interaction and the crowds must respond to these efforts in order for any sport to exist.

Karate Club – Dijo

The TSU Karate Club Dijo functions from the Japanese style of karate known as Yoshukia. The club promotes the strength and mental aspects of the martial arts. It also provides an outlet for both athletes and non-athletes alike, and the weekly training program provides the atmosphere needed for the development of brotherhood among those involved.

The Contenders

Bowling

Obviously, TSU had a fine men's golf team for 1982 since they were not satisfied with being ranked fourth in the nation. For the last seven years they had come in at least fourth and were hoping for a little more this year.

It is for sure that Troy State set the standard for golf in the Gulf South Conference. They took the number one spot, All GSC for the third year in a row.

Likewise, TSU was the team to be contended with nationally. Coach Griffin made an analogy of TSU golf and coke. He said Bill Cosby notices how everyone is always comparing their soda to coke and he notices how everyone is always comparing their team to the Trojans.

"Cockiness" Pays Off

The 1981-82 season was an exciting one for Coach Chris Force's Lady golfers. For the first time ever, Troy State University's Women's Golf team went to Nationals which were held in Colorado Springs, CL.

This was Chris Force's first year as head coach. The eight member team was a confident one but their coach thought the "cockiness", as he put it, was healthy. He expects the team to grow in number and in maturity for next year.

Number One All GSC

The 1982 baseball season saw Troy State put together an outstanding record of 31-10 and roar through the Gulf South Conference Tournament undefeated for its third straight championship.

But the season ended sooner than expected when TSU was disqualified from post-season play by the NCAA national committee. The committee's decision hinged on the eligibility of a transfer student who had not sat out a full academic year.

A rule interpretation, a technicality, brought the Trojan's season to an end. "The year was something of a disappointment in that we didn't get the opportunity to see what we could do in national play," said TSU coach Chase Riddle. "But it still doesn't take away any of the pride we have in what our team did accomplish. We had another fine year, and gave our fans some excitement. The support we've gotten from the students, the university community, and the townspeople has been just outstanding."

The TSU men's track team accomplished their goal this year, which was to win the GSC championship for the third straight year. These Trojans were the first track team in the history of the Gulf South Conference to win three consecutive championships.

The Trojans also won the Troy Relays and the West Georgia Relays. In addition they qualified five individuals for the national track meet. Several school records were set this year. Six members of the 1982 track team were seniors.

Rugby Club

During Rugby Club's first year the team proved what an exciting sport TSU had been missing. The Troy State Rugby Team was founded during the fall quarter by Will Lowery and Tim Anderson. The team played two full quarters before being chartered as a university club in the spring. Since its inception the club has grown rapidly by drawing many interested fans.

The Rugby Club played games with university and club teams from all over the southeastern United States during the fall, winter, and spring quarters. Some regularly scheduled opponents were teams from Auburn University, Fort Benning, Fort Walton, Mississippi State University, and Albany State. The team also participated in tournaments in Mobile, Alabama and Columbus, Mississippi. The Rugby Team posted victories over Mississippi State and Albany State.

Membership requirements for the TSU Rugby Club are a 1.00 GPA, enthusiasm, and a determination to be part of a growing contact sport.

Water Ski Club

The Troy State University Water Ski Club was founded this year by a determined group of ski lovers. President elect Lands Carr is the prime advocate of the club and its charter. Other officers include Bill Parsons, Vice President; Otto Bohnenberger, Treasurer; and Cheryl Schmalmaack, Secretary. The club advisor is Mr. Daniel Rabinowitz.

Through the generosity of Tommy Hill, the club was enabled to ski at Sports Acres, a competition lake in Montgomery. The TSU Water Ski Club co-sponsored several tournaments held at Sports Acres.

Women's Track

Breaking Records!!!

The Lady Trojan Track team made tremendous progress during 1982. This progress was due to the effort of talented freshmen and the excellent leadership of upper classmen.

The Lady tracksters broke almost every school record and several stadium and track records. Six members of the team qualified for nationals which were held at Austin Peay State University. The women's track team also captured the Alabama AIAW Track title with Jacksonville State in second place, six points behind.

The 1983 season looks good for the team since this year's team was a young one and all the team will be returning next year.

Sponsored by her fellow TSU Gospel Choir members, Miss Gwen Madison was elected Troy State's Homecoming Queen for 1981-82. Other organizations that Gwen is actively involved in include Angel Flight, AFROTC, and Delta Sigma Pi. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Madison of Enterprise, Alabama and is a junior majoring in finance. Gwen's advice to incoming freshmen is to "get involved in and become a part of their university, explore and take advantage of the many social and academic activities TSU has to offer."

Call Campus Security!

Many Troy State students believe that the only duty Campus Security has is that of writing parking tickets; however, according to Chief Alan Boothe, head of Campus Security, their duties are much more involved. Campus Security's duties can range from helping a student or faculty member start his car to investigating a theft.

Campus Security began years ago as part of the Physical Plant, but became too complexed, so they became part of the Student Affairs Division. The chief objectives of Campus Security include providing 24 hour protection seven days a week for all Troy State students and property, enforcing all TSU rules, and enforcing all city and state laws.

Security's calls are not always cut and dry. Sometimes a humorous call is received, for example, once a young man called the office to ask if there were any laws against streaking.

While you may not be too thrilled with Campus Security when you find that aggrivating parking ticket on your windshield, they are certainly good friends to have in times of need.

It Doesn't Hurt To Give

On college campuses everywhere students are driving and driving hard for . . . well . . . they're after blood! High schools and colleges alike are introducing blood drives throughout the school year.

During each school year, Troy State will call upon its students to donate blood. Generally, there are good turn-outs at these blood drives. They are successful endeavors probably because students understand that there is a real need for blood. It is also comforting to know that as a donor you can make blood available to relatives and friends if they need it before you do.

Bloody Good Deal!

Just a Little TLC

The Mary E. Rich Health Center is located on the first floor of Hamil Hall. Its purpose is to provide general medical services for students. Physical examinations are provided only for varsity athletes.

The Health Center has a nurse on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week during the school quarter. No permissions are necessary to visit the Health Center during the day; however, the clinic hours are 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily. Only emergencies are seen after these hours.

If a student needs emergency care after 9:00 p.m. he must notify the assistant director on his residence hall floor. The A.D. will then call the Health Center so that preparations can be made before the student arrives for treatment. Off campus students must also call before going for emergency treatment.

Student illnesses are handled by the nurse on duty. If further treatment is deemed necessary the student is seen by the University physician or referred to the family docotr.

Minor medications are free. Certain antibiotics and other drugs will be charged to the student at cost.

When the bug is going around, the "infirmary" is the closest thing we've got to Mom's "tender lovin' care."

Editor's Note

This past year has been more or less a whirlwind in the Palladium office. The leaving of one editor and the taking over of another kept the dust from ever settling. We had such a large staff by the end of spring that I don't ever dare try to list the names of all those who helped me through. They know who they are, they are my friends. I do want to sincerely express my gratitude to the whole staff for their work. You'll never know how much it meant to me to have people that I could depend on, not just to get a job done but to do it as well as you people did! I thank you. And there are others to whom I am grateful, like Ms. Smith, TSU photography, Sports Information, and the entire TSU faculty and administration who are all so easy to work with.

Throughout the year, I often was reminded of a poem I once heard and thought how very well it applied to my life at times. I would like to share it with you, the reader. This is my final thank you . . .

Susan Russell

One Set of Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand — one belonging to him and the other to the Lord. When the last scene had flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints and noticed that many times along the path there was only one set of footprints in the sand. He also noted that this happened during the lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord, "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow You, You would walk all the way, but I notice that during the most troblesome times of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed You most, You deserted me." The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering when you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you . . . " *

This year's Palladium Staff tried to capture the special atmosphere that is unique to "our corner of the world." We sincerely apologize for any mis-pelling or other errors.
